

Payment Terms

- Client shall pay the Disc Jockey the amount outlined as “Total Price” in exchange for said number of hours of service.
- A deposit in the amount outlined as “Deposit Sent” must be paid to the Disc Jockey 60 days prior to the event. This is a non-refundable deposit.
- The remaining balance, outlined as “Remaining Balance” must be paid, in cash or money order, immediately upon Disc Jockey's arrival at the event and before the Disc Jockey performs.

Deposits and Confirmation

- Disc Jockey is not confirmed for the event until this signed agreement and the outlined deposit has been received.
- Client must return this signed agreement via email or mail to the Disc Jockey no later than 60 days prior to event.
- Disc Jockey's name cannot be used in any advertisements or promotions of the event until this signed agreement and deposit have been received.
- Client agrees to be responsible for any damage to the Disc Jockey's equipment if the damage is caused by the client or guests.

Cancellations

A cancellation will not be accepted within 30 days prior to the date of the event. If the event is canceled within this window of time the client is responsible to pay the Disc Jockey the entire balance due. Once the Disc Jockey arrives at the venue, and is paid the remaining balance due, then by the terms agreed upon in this contract, the Disc Jockey will perform services at the event. Disc Jockey will not be held responsible for the inability to perform for any of the following reasons:

- Police or Government Official closing down location or event.
- Location/Promoter losing license.
- Facility improperly equipped (i.e. no electricity)
- Fire, war or an Act of God

Equipment Requirements

The event site shall provide the Disc Jockey with the following equipment in good working order:

- Table (4' banquet style table or bigger)
- Table skirt (recommend one that goes completely to the floor to hide cables)
- Sitting Chair
- Electricity

In Witness Thereof, the parties enter in to this contract as to the above stated terms.
