About Early Years Matters

Recognised for our significant involvement in the development of the EYFS and our contribution to the EYFS review, we are dedicated to making early education better for young children and their teachers. A company with a growing reputation in providing affordable, high quality training to schools, we know this course will be a 'life saver' for professionals new to early years.

Delegates have told us our training is outstanding:

'An excellent day all round and one of the best value training events I have attended. The accompanying materials provided gave me a clear overview and will help me remember the detail long after the event'. (Independent Early Years Consultant)

'I have received some excellent feedback from staff and they all found it extremely useful. The training was exactly as I had hoped and .. presented in a non-threatening, informative manner. I will not hesitate to recommend you to others' (EYFS Lead, Independent School)
