

THE REFRIGERATOR PAGE

October 20, 2013

Welcome to Grace Church!

Accessible through the doorway at the front left of the church,
down the hallway, you can find the following:

Coat Hooks: in the hallway

Ladies Room: to the right of the mailboxes

Men's Room: from the lobby, downstairs, to the left of the steps

Parish Hall: through the double doors right of the lobby

Sunday School Rooms:

Teens - Guild Room: to the left of the mailboxes

Little Ones - downstairs, through the double doors, first room on the right

Thank You for letting the clergy know when you are ill, hospitalized, or planning to be away.

Pastor Susan is always available on her cell phone at 586-872-7883

The Prayers of this Congregation

Names remain on the Prayer List for 6 weeks; call the church office to renew them.

We pray for Jasmine Gardner, Melissa Wenzell, Marilyn Pruitt, Pam, Naomi Bayer, Laurie Allor, Valerie Richardson, Bette Greer, George Kalligeros,

Gerald Cobb, Thor, Reilly, Liam, Mary Price,

Ann Zoma, Jean Grazia, and Gwen Preece;

and our own member serving in the military, Kyle Martel.

We give thanks for Justin, Katharine, Wendell and all bishops;

for our Diocesan household and all its ministers;

for our own clergy, Betty, Bob, and Susan,

and for the People and Clergy of St. Paul's, Lansing, and St. John the Evangelist, Piedra Blanca, Dominican Republic.

know how many people to expect.

The Beloved Community

October is Domestic Abuse Awareness month.

The Closeline Project, presented by Turning Point, is hanging in our parish hall until the end of October.

It aims to bear witness to survivors of domestic abuse, to help with their healing, and to educate, document and raise awareness of the tragedy of domestic violence. More Information is posted on the west wall of the hall.
