

In-house organisations registered to offer training contracts

www.chambersstudent.co.uk was provided with this information by the Commerce & Industry Group in the summer of 2012.

Apart from a bit of tidying up, we have simply published it as we received it and can make no claims as to its accuracy.

Not all of these organisations hire trainees regularly.

Indeed, unless an organisation publicises vacancies, usually its trainees will be recruited after having already worked there in some other capacity – often as a paralegal or equivalent.
