

Masterclass: Business Law

Tuesday 31 May 2016 | 9am-12.20pm

Law Society House, Brisbane

Overview

Are you identifying all the key legal and commercial elements in a complex business law case and communicating your advice to the client in a clear, succinct manner?

This interactive, advanced workshop has been designed using a scenario from a past specialist accreditation assessment, for experienced business law practitioners to develop your legal and commercial skills. This workshop involves facilitated small group discussions; so be prepared to share your views in this three-hour session. Pre-reading of the scenario before you attend, is essential to ensure you are able to get the most out of this workshop.

Workshop: Complex business law scenario

In this facilitated workshop you will explore a complex business law scenario that involves multiple parties, entities and a range of business law issues. You will receive practical guidance from a member of the Queensland Law Society's Business Law Specialist Accreditation Advisory Committee, who has drafted this specialist accreditation assessment scenario.

In the workshop the facilitator will lead small group discussions covering:

- identifying the range of business law areas in this scenario
- application of the law to the facts
- identifying the possible risks and consequences for the client
- key tips and traps for drafting legal advices for complex business law issues.

Delegates will be encouraged to interact and present factual and legal arguments in small groups.

Delegates are required to have read the scenario before attending the workshop.

A morning break, including refreshments, will be included in this workshop.
