

To whom it may concern:

On Saturday, February 7, 2015, The Junior Service Club of Edwardsville/Glen Carbon (JSC) will be hosting the 5th Annual Charity Gala at Sunset Hills Country Club. Tickets are on sale for $100 per person and will include dinner, open bar, silent and live auction, and live entertainment. We anticipate approximately 225 guests at this exciting event.

The JSC is a 501(c)3 philanthropic women's organization that has been providing assistance to families and other non-profit organizations in the Edwardsville & Glen Carbon communities for over 75 years. If you have supported our organization in the past, we would greatly appreciate your continued support. Last year's auction was a huge success raising over $41,000. All of the funds raised by the JSC go back into to the community in the form of scholarships and donations to local non-profit organizations such as the Glen-Ed Food Pantry, Riverbend Head Start, Habitat for Humanity, and many others.

We are counting on the support and generosity of corporate and local business owners to make this event a huge success. Please consider being a sponsor or making a donation to our live or silent auction this year. We are offering a variety of exciting sponsorship opportunities. Donor recognition, sponsorship levels, and pricing are detailed on the enclosed form and can also be viewed and purchased online at www.edglenjuniorservice.org.

Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,

Lauren Ide Kelly Ruehl

Dear Applicant:

We are pleased to inform you that upon review of your application for tax exempt status we have determined that you are exempt from Federal income tax under section 501(c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code. Contributions to you are deductible under section 170 of the Code. You are also qualified to receive tax deductible bequests, devises, transfers or gifts under section 2055, 2106 or 2522 of the Code. Because this letter could help resolve any questions regarding your exempt status, you should keep it in your permanent records.

Organizations exempt under section 501(c) (3) of the Code are further classified as either public charities or private foundations. We determined that you are a public charity under the Code section(s) listed in the heading of this letter.

Please see enclosed Publication 4221-PC, Compliance Guide for 501(c) (3) Public Charities, for some helpful information about your responsibilities as an exempt organization.

If you distribute funds to other organizations, your records must show whether they are exempt under section 501(c) (3). In cases where the recipient organization is not exempt under section 501(c) (3), you must have evidence the funds will be used for section 501(c) (3) purposes.

If you distribute funds to individuals, you should keep case histories showing the recipient's name and address; the purpose of the award; the manner of selection; and the relationship of the recipient to any of your officers, directors, trustees, members, or major contributors.
