AMARILLO COLLEGE BUSINESS & INDUSTRY CENTER

Ms. Adams joined Blazek & Vetterling in 2003 and became a partner of the firm in 2011. Amanda currently serves a broad range of nonprofit clients including social service agencies, civic, business, and cultural organizations, private foundations, and health-care related organizations. In 2007, she co-authored an article entitled "Transfers Between Private Foundations" that appeared in Trusts & Estates magazine. In 2013, she co-authored an article entitled "The Death of Sudden Tipping" that appeared in Taxation of Exempts magazine. She has also co-authored (with Jody Blazek) Revised Form 990: A Line-by-Line Preparation Guide (2009) and Tax Planning and Compliance for Tax-Exempt Organization, 5th Edition (2012). Amanda has presented seminars on nonprofit tax issues for the Houston Chapter of CPAs, Rice University's Center for Philanthropy and Nonprofit Leadership, South Texas College of Law, and many others. In 2011, Amanda wrote questions about nonprofit and governmental accounting that were selected for use in the Financial Accounting and Reporting section of the Uniform CPA Examination.
