February to June 2012

This event is for teachers at Key Stage 3, 4 or 5.

Ideal for Teachers of Law, Citizenship and Health and Social Care, open to all with a keen interest.

On the Day

Gain a unique, behind the scene, experience of the proceedings and roles within the courtroom. You will spend the day with a prosecutor who will give you commentary on the case as it develops and how the system works.

Prosecutors are responsible for reviewing and, where appropriate, prosecuting criminal cases following investigation by the police. In each case reviewed, the prosecutor will consider whether there is sufficient evidence and, if so, whether the public interest requires a prosecution.

The Crown Prosecution Service (CPS)

The CPS is responsible for prosecuting criminal cases investigated by the police in England and Wales and is responsible for:

- Advising the police on cases for possible prosecution
- Reviewing cases submitted by the police
- Determining any charges in all but minor cases
- Preparing and presenting cases for and at court

Justice at Work

As student access to this type of environment is restricted, this is an ideal opportunity for teaching staff to experience a working environment that relates to subjects being taught.

By relating lesson content to the world outside of the classroom, students often find it easier to grasp and understand the theories. The day will provide a wealth of opportunities for you to:

-  Update your professional knowledge on the use of law in a work setting
-  Gain an insight into the employment options within this sector
-  Take back inspiration to enhance the curriculum

Due to the sensitive nature of matters that arise in court, you will be asked to sign the Official Secrets Act. Checks will be carried out prior to your visit to ensure you have no connection to individuals involved in the cases you witness.

Bookings

To book your place please complete and return the booking form below. There is an administration charge of £35 per teacher, this will be invoiced after the day. Confirmation, directions and other details will be sent to you on receipt of the booking form.
