

WILD about TROUT Teachers Workshop

ATTENTION TROUT IN THE CLASSROOM TEACHERS

Spokane Conservation Districts along with Trout Unlimited would like to invite you to attend a

FREE

WILD about TROUT

Teacher Workshop

September 28, 2011

Spokane Conservation District

210 N. Havana

Spokane, Washington

5:00 - 8:30

Teachers will learn many trout and fish related lessons to use in their classrooms. All participants will receive the Aquatic WILD Curriculum guide. Local fish experts will offer a brief overview of the history, biology and importance of trout in our area.

3 Clock Hours Provided for FREE!

Space is limited so register early!

REGISTRATION IS REQUIRED!

Please send the following information to Kara Kaelber by 9/23/11

E-Mail: kara-kaelber@conservewa.net or Fax: 509-547-2007

Name: _____

Grade Level: _____

School/Agency: _____

Phone: _____

E-Mail: _____

Workshop is free! Space is limited! Please register by September 23th!

Sponsored By:

Franklin Conservation District

Benton Conservation District

spokanefallstu.org

