

1st Grade ^{is} Rewarding!

We would like to extend a little something extra to your 1st grade classroom. Your local Burger King's leadership and management team understands the importance of behavior, respect and learning especially in the transitional period to 1st grade. We've put together a small certificate and ice cream token designed as a reward for a student that shows exemplary good behavior for the week. We hope that the integration of these certificates and tokens into your classroom will help keep students excited about 1st grade and excited about displaying good behavior and respect!

Please fill out the form attached to get started!

We welcome and appreciate any feedback on how you integrate these certificates and rewards into your 1st grade class! Please direct feedback to bkincentives@midamcorp.com.
