

CITY OF WESTMOUNT

Library, Cultural & Community Events

SPRING / 2016

VILLE DE | CITY OF
WESTMOUNT

In the fall of 2015, we launched a new guide devoted entirely to cultural and community events to present all of our activities in a single publication. It reflects and contributes to Westmount's well-established and thriving cultural and community scene.

Given the positive response we received, I am now very proud to present our second edition of the brochure, which features all of our spring events.

In an effort to keep our ecological footprint as low as possible, the guide will first appear online at www.westlib.org, after which a limited number of printed copies will be made available in municipal buildings.

I invite you to treat yourself and make the most of the many pleasures and discoveries that our upcoming season of community and cultural programming has to offer.

On behalf of all the members of the Library and Community Events team, I wish you an excellent cultural season and look forward to seeing you.

Performance of "Love Letters" by Alyssa Victor and Henry Nesvadba

Wed, Apr 27 | 7 pm

Love Letters is a funny and emotional play about the powerful connection of love. Two friends, rebellious Melissa Gardner and straight-arrow Andrew Makepeace Ladd III have exchanged notes, cards and letters with each other for over 50 years. From second grade, through summer vacations, to college, and well into adulthood, they have spent a lifetime discussing their hopes and ambitions, dreams and disappointments, and victories and defeats. But long after the letters are done, the real question remains: Have they made the right choices or is the love of their life only a letter away?

Please do not leave your child at the library unless he/she is allowed to go home alone.

CONCOURS LITTÉRAIRE
MCENTYRE
WRITING COMPETITION

2016
BUILDING BRIDGES

Have you ever stopped to think about “bridges” and the importance they play in our lives? For example, we live on an island, so bridges are a necessary part of our everyday experience. But, more than that, bridges are what connect us with the wider world around us. This year we would like you to write about “Building Bridges”.

A physical bridge structure can:

- provide hours of imaginative play
- keep us in touch with family or friends who live elsewhere
- serve to unite communities that might otherwise be isolated
- offer us the chance to widen our own experiences

However, the idea of “building bridges” can also mean:

- improving relationships between people who are very different or do not like each other
- increasing understanding between different groups

Write and tell us about your bridge building: where does it take you, and what happens when you get there?

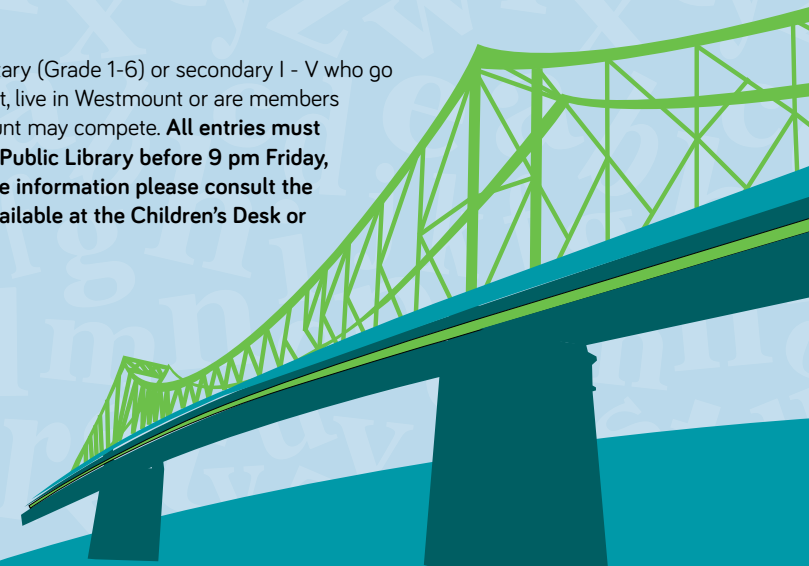

Use your imagination! Be creative and remember, as always, to write about the theme in the context of community. Think of community not just as a town or neighbourhood, but as friends, family, teams, clubs, schools, libraries, work-places, places of worship, social movements, people living in different cultures, or others sharing our planet! You are welcome to write a story, poem, or an essay. What you write is up to you; the aim is to be creative!

Who was Peter McEntyre?

Peter McEntyre was the Mayor of the City of Westmount from 1969 to 1971. He set up a trust fund to support an annual writing competition to encourage young people to think about the idea of community, and to learn more about their own communities.

Who is eligible?

All students in elementary (Grade 1-6) or secondary I - V who go to school in Westmount, live in Westmount or are members of a library in Westmount may compete. All entries must reach the Westmount Public Library before 9 pm Friday, April 1, 2016. For more information please consult the McEntyre Brochure available at the Children's Desk or at www.westlib.org.

Victoria Hall

On any given day, you can find tai chi, music, and dance classes as well as bridge, concerts, and theatre productions taking place at Victoria Hall.
