From Pastor Sharon Huff

Last month I wrote about my dog Eddie, this month I thought I'd give equal time to my cat, Tux.

Tux, a black and white tuxedo cat, was adopted about 12 years ago, from a rescue organization. Tux has two distinctive personality characteristics: his love of food and his cowardice.

A former stray, Tux is what's known as "food driven." In other words, all he wants to do is eat. Apparently Tux was hungry on his own, and according to the rescue organization, it was hard to catch him as a stray. The only reason they were able to was because of his love of food. He's one of the most shy cats I've encountered, startling at any noise and running from just about everyone except my son Craig and me. I have no doubt that a stray he was pretty miserable as he's the biggest "scaredy cat" I've ever seen. At home he generally hides in my closet or in Craig's room.

A couple of months ago Tux developed an abscess in a rather unfortunate location which I shall tastefully decline naming. By the time we discovered it, it was on its way to healing. Craig and I took him to the vet even so, where he meowed loudly and clung tightly to Craig's jacket with all his claws. Call us cold hearted, but he was such a wuss that we couldn't help laughing.

When we got him home, in order to comfort him, he filled up his food bowl. That did the trick!

I write about Tux and his fear because fear is one of the biggest factors for human behavior. Fear can keep us locked into unhealthy patterns and lifestyles, afraid of what our friends will think, afraid of ridicule, afraid of failing, afraid of being hurt. In this time after Easter, we are reminded that the disciples of Jesus were also quite fearful (who wouldn't be, given their circumstances?) but that Jesus was constantly reassuring them, "Do not be afraid."

Someone has said, "The presence of fear is a sure sign that we're trusting in our own strength."

Christ said, "Peace be with you!" Peace is possible because Jesus will never leave you or forsake you. When our actions are dictated by fear, we do well to turn to Jesus, who has the wherewithal to help us deal with our fears to healthier living.

RISE UP Southeast Michigan! One of the largest Service Learning projects during the 2015 ELCA National Youth Gathering in Detroit last summer was cleaning up neighborhoods and boarding up abandoned houses in the Osborn neighborhood of Detroit. Plans are being made to continue the good work started last summer. Volunteer to work one or more of the Saturdays in April; gather a group from your neighborhood or congregation to come work with The Youth Connection, The Osborn Neighborhood Alliance and Matrix Human Services. The Work Day will be about 8:30 am to 4:00 pm each Saturday, lunch and snacks provided. All skill levels are needed; we'll be doing yard-work as well as cutting and attaching boards on the houses. CONNECTING FOUR: Being together with the Special Ministries' Guests, Volunteers, St. George Church, and Jesus our Lord!

Sunday, March 6TH Brunch SUCCESS!

The presence of Christ, our many Special Ministries' guests, volunteers who make it happen, and congregants made the wonderful brunch and late service a resounding success!

It was evident the extreme joy in everyone's hearts as we all shared in singing to God, playing all the instruments during the wonderful songs for worship, and being an essential part of the service. A special note of gratitude goes out to Sue, Dottie, Gail, and Pastor Sharon for offering such great songs and music that made our service so vibrant! Thanks for the popular closing song: "LET THE RIVER FLOW" which was a perfect way to conclude the service!

Much appreciation goes out to Joanne Bellmard, Chris and John Coddington, Lorna and Bob Durand, Michelle and Leo Hirschman, Linda and Dave Needham, Anne and Jan Pitzer, and Mary Lynn Thomson for the bagels and juice donations.

The brunch casseroles (baked to perfection!) were donated by Cindy and John Brach, Angie Brown, Sherry and Bruce Graenser, The Pitzers, Janice Powell, and Jan and Larry Shock.

The craft table and 'rock' projects were overseen by Joanne B., Michelle and Leo Hirschman, Elaine McIntyre, and Jan S.

The many volunteers for the setting-up, serving at the food table, 'helping out,' and the CLEANING UP! was done with a joyful heart by: Joanne B., Kathy Bugaski, Yvonne Cavalli, Lorna Durand, The Graesners, The Hirschmans, Jan P., early-bird Janice P., and The Shocks. ("Thank-you" to those who helped with the LETS' bus and elevator assistance!)

Our Special Ministries' guests went home with a hand-crafted "Rock of Jesus," a well-fed spirit and body, and many smiles!

Our Next Connection:

Our next Special Ministries' ~ St. George event is Sunday, April 17th starting at 3:30 PM with the "4th Wall Theater Workshop." This special 'production' company will provide the Special Ministries' guests the opportunity to learn about the many aspects of a play and performances in a theater-setting.

The second feature of this Sunday is the Fish N' Loaves' delicious spaghetti dinner, super-organized by Bruce and Sherry Graesner. The meal will start downstairs at 5:30PM. The meal also welcomes the theater workshop team, the volunteers, and is open for anyone in the community who would enjoy great fellowship and food! Watch for the sign-up sheet for volunteers and to help furnish food items (as per menu) at the previous Sunday services.

Special Ministries' next 'quarterly' newsletter is up and on-line. There are a wide-variety of events that you might want to participate in and volunteer for. Go to www.special-ministries.org.

Just in Time for Spring Special Ministries announces a WONDERFUL Spring fundraising event

Starting on Sunday, April 3rd, we are partnering with Carruth Studios to offer a unique variety of garden statuary items and wall ornaments of the most diverse subjects and styles.

Special Ministries will receive 40% profit from total sales. It will be possible for St. George congregants to look over the fundraiser flyer, see examples of the material used for the ornaments' production, and place an order between the early and late service (and afterwards) on April 3rd. This same opportunity will be available on April 10th. The fundraising table will be set up in the Fellowship Hall area.

Items ordered will arrive (at the church property) on or around April 30th and will be available for pick-up Sunday, May 1st and May 8th.

Each piece comes decoratively boxed along with a gift-tag! The gifts are ready just in time for Mother's Day, birthdays or distinctive garden decorations.

Carruth Studios calls these products "Garden Smiles!" There are so many to choose from that will bring a smile to the face of your gift recipient!

The profits from this fundraiser are going to be targeted for implementing a unique new program (just in the initial stages of planning) for mentors with a Special Ministries' participant.

Go to www.special-ministries.org/donate for more information. The Carruth Studios' website is: www.carruthstudio.com for a preview of the fundraiser flyer.

I am writing this on Wednesday, March 23rd. The vernal equinox was last Sunday, Palm Sunday. There will be a full moon tonight. Remember, Easter falls on the first Sunday after the first full moon, after the vernal equinox. All in one week this year. Now on to spring. You may have noticed the flowers popping through the soil on your walk into church, and it brings a smile to your face and a skip in your step. We have a Music committee on the task force. Please consider volunteering for this committee. Input from the congregation, all of you, is requested. Since music is an integral part of the worship service, we want to make worship meaningful for everyone. We need your input.

Winter, Summer, Spring.....I truly don't know what time of year it is with the weather changing like it is. Come on Summer.

The pantry was able to give hams for Easter dinner to our clients. We gave 83 10 pound hams plus all the fixings for a wonderful Easter dinner. We also provided over 100 Easter baskets for the children.

We are looking forward to the garage sale in May. If you have any donations for it, please contact Shannon or myself.

We have started a 'free computer' program for the children of families who qualify for the free lunch program at school. We have someone who rebuilds computers and puts appropriate programs of them for children of 5th grade level (this is where we are starting). We eventually want to cover from kindergarten thru high school. Anyone who has an old computer (or 2), whether it be a desktop or laptop or Ipad, please let Yvonne know. The program works because we receive the computers free, Jeff rebuilds them for free and we distribute them for free.

Our clothing program has just become an unbelievable wonderful department store. Sizes newborn to 5X are received and distributed. We accept clothing donations Thursday 10am until 1pm, Friday 10am until 6pm and Saturday 8am until noon.

Thank you so much for all your support.

God Bless You and Keep You,
