The VNA Healthcare Hospice program is seeking spiritual care volunteers to work serving the needs of terminally ill people and their families, in the greater Waterbury area.

The Hospice programs helps patients spend the final days of their lives at home, with the support of their families. Experienced professionals and volunteers help relieve the physical and emotional pain of terminal illness.

Spiritual care volunteers are caring people with experience in pastoral skills, who are interested in giving spiritual support to patients and families under the guidance of the Hospice Pastoral Counselor. Volunteers will participate in training on topics such as patient rights, listening skills, death and dying, as well as the volunteer's own belief systems and feeling concerning end-of-life issues.

Training for volunteers will be held at VNA HealthCare, 50 Brookside Road, Waterbury, CT. Interested people may call Pat Wilson, Volunteer Coordinator, at 203-755-3585.

Anyone who is interested in advertising in our bulletin is asked to contact Joe Sheehy at 231-0727
