Tuition Assistance Program

This program is offered to parents who are unable to support or find it difficult to pay the tuition fees. The eligibility for availing this program will be based on the family income level. If a family qualifies for this program, different options will be available through Barter-Exchange program to compensate the tuition fee.

Barter-Exchange Program: Qualified family will be given the available services that they can offer to the school in order to compensate for their child’s tuition fee
