INSTRUCTIONS

The person signing this claim should enter his or her name on the first line.

- Line 3. If land and/or building, enter the street address and parcel number. If personal property, describe in sufficient detail to identify (e.g., type, make, model, serial number, etc.). List the primary use to be made of the property; list other known uses of the property.
- Line 4. Enter the name and address of the lessee. If there is more than one lessee, you may attach an itemized list.
- Line 7. Check the appropriate box. If you own taxable personal property in any county whose aggregate cost is $100,000 or more for any assessment year, you must file a property statement with the Assessor of that county whether or not he or she requests you to do so. Any person not otherwise required to file a statement shall do so upon request of the Assessor regardless of aggregate cost.
- Line 8. If the lessee is a public school, community college, state college, state university, University of California, church or nonprofit college, you must submit evidence of the lessee's exclusive use of the property for exempt purposes. Submit in accordance with the box checked on the form an affidavit of the lessee declaring under penalty of perjury that the property is exclusively used for the purpose for which is conferred. In the case of free public library or free museum, exclusive use is not required, and the fact of the lessee's possession is sufficient evidence of use.

If the property, or a portion thereof, for which exemption is claimed is a student bookstore that generates unrelated business taxable income as defined in section 512 of the Internal Revenue Code, property taxes as determined by establishing a ratio of the unrelated business taxable income to the bookstore's gross income will be levied.

- (3) Claim by lessee under the provisions of section 5096, Revenue and Taxation Code, for a refund of taxes paid by a lessor (section 202.2, Revenue and Taxation Code).

Note: Where the lessee files a claim for an exemption mentioned in the heading of this form and reports leased property, such property will be allowed the exemption if used in an exempt manner.
