

HOW YOU CAN HELP

Heartland Dulcimer Club is asking you to support their Fall Festival goal of making the event an accessible opportunity for individuals and families of our local community and surrounding states to connect to the Arts. We are very appreciative of our community support of traditional Folk Music and the Arts and hope you can help us to make the Festival, including the Saturday evening concert, a successful event. We welcome any donation amount, but have put together the following list of specific amounts for your consideration:
