Upcoming Luncheon Programs

May 22, 2010 Varano's, Wells An Artist Eye: Japan and Sweden

Tokyo is a linocut by Nancy R. Davison. She made the original drawing on her first day in Japan in 1991. All rights reserved.

York printmaker, Nancy R. Davison, has been President of the Ogunquit Arts Collaborative-Barn Gallery for over 10 years. At Smith College she majored in studio art and studied printmaking with Leonard Baskin.

Her extensive travel has included not only Japan and Sweden, but also Italy, France, Germany and South Africa. She has sketchbooks filled with quick drawings of people in urban areas and of street scenes as well as of landscapes she will share with us.

Comments Nancy R. Davison, "Travel always gives me a fresh eye and renewed energy for my paintings." Her one-woman exhibitions in Japan and Sweden, in particular, made her aware of the degree to which various cultures value and present the visual arts in different ways. For example, she comments that printmaking, which is considered an art form in the West, is considered to be a craft in Japan.

June 26, 2010, Jonathan's Travels in China

Last fall, IWCNE member, Johanna Mangion and her husband, Bob, along with another couple, spent three months traveling in China. This adventurous foursome were completely on their own in this expansive country. Making their way via area bus, train, plane, car, foot and staying in hostels presented many challenges to them, including coping with the language. Joanna and Bob will share their experiences along with photographs.

April Meeting

Our speaker for April is multi-talented Marina Forbes, who in addition to her work as a professional folklorist, lecturer, historian and artist conducts cultural tours to Russia and teaches the art form of traditional Russian Icon painting. Her presentation to us will embrace one thousand years of this creative tradition as well as cover highlights of Russia today. Over the years she has been active in many New England organizations including the New Hampshire State Council on the Arts.

Traditional Russian Icon painting is one of the world's important artistic movements. Marina will discuss the spiritual and secular significance of Russian religious art from the 10th century to the present day - a Russian Orthodox tradition passed from generation to generation. Icon painting involves painting specifically stylized religious images on wood; these images are regularly displayed in Russian orthodox churches, monasteries and private homes. When consecrated they become sacred objects.

Marina will use exhibits including examples of her own work in various stages of completion while she examines the history of this famous tradition. She will also cover some highlights of her 2009 tour to Russia and touch on her plans for the 2010 trip.

UNDER THE STARS

The International Women's Club of New England is excited to present our annual fashion event, "Under the Stars". All of the stars have truly lined up to make all things possible for this year's fabulous fashion show and evening of entertainment. The fund raising event will be held at 'On the Marsh Bistro', Kennebunk, Maine, Sunday, June 6th from 5:00 to 8:00 PM. This will be a grand tented affair, with fashions from a variety of up-scale shops and boutiques from Portsmouth to Portland, presented on a professional lighted runway.

There will be music, cocktails (cash bar) and passed hors d'oeuvres, high end raffle items, live auction, gifts and a performance by globally-known, Tim Janis and Ensemble. "Under the Stars" is a star studded, jam-packed event that will be the talk of the town. We will be limiting this wonderful evening to 300 guests, so please plan to purchase tickets for family and friends early, as there will be no tickets sold at the door. The cost is $65 pp. and invitations have been mailed. Further reservations can be arranged by calling Betty McPhee at 207-363-9114 or e-mailing your request to mcpheebetty@yahoo.com.

For 17 years, IWCNE has been in existence and fund raising to support women and children. This year, we are raising the bar higher by sharing our strengths with the Barbara Bush Children's Hospital at Maine Medical Center, to raise funds that will benefit both of our charities. Barbara Bush has personally approved this event and the Fashion Show Committee is looking forward to entertaining and escorting anticipated Bush family members to the VIP section. The Committee has been working diligently to present an event representative of our organization and at a level we aspire to achieve in the coming years.

To make this event a great success, we truly need the help of the entire IWCNE membership, to sell tickets, hostess, sell raffles and to be present that evening to spread the word about our organization, mingle and help where needed. IWCNE is an important and strong organization in our collective communities and your assistance can only make us even greater. I am looking forward to working with all of you to further our cherished goals.

Betty McPhee, Vice President and Fashion Show Chairman/Treasurer

The Board strongly encourages members to attend the monthly meetings, which are integral to IWCNE. Luncheons promote friendship, introduce new members, provide information about club activities as well as furthering our mission of understanding the diversity of cultures in our country and throughout the world. It is also your opportunity to invite friends who can learn about the club and its various programs and projects.

FROM THE FOUNDER'S PEN

In 1980 while I was living in Doula, Cameroon, West Africa, I saw the need of starting a Women's Club, then again in 1982 in Dallas, Texas and once again in 1992, when our IWCNE was established. All the clubs have adopted the same logo, mission statement and By-Laws.

A logo is the unique symbol of an organization. The IWCNE logo includes a palm tree and pinecones. Why does it have a palm tree?

The palm tree with its kernels represents life and nourishment. With its heavy branches it shelters you, the weary traveler, who for a moment on your life's journey sits down to replenish and where you might meet a fellow man before continuing on your journey. The tree is the club and the traveler is you, our member.

The club in Dallas has modified the logo somewhat and IWCNE has added the pinecones which represent our New England roots
