Board of Directors
Declaration of Candidacy

1. Please summarize your involvement with and contributions to the MSF.

Attend tests sponsored by MSF in 2010 and 2011, and push the MSF EPC IOT in China Mobile.

2. Where do you see the MSF going in the next three years?

MSF will be more and more important the next few years as MSF communicates with standardization so closely. The IOT sponsored by MSF is so important and helpful in push the LTE technique mature.

3. What are the MSF's biggest challenges ahead?

MSF should absorb more members and increase its influence in the industry and close relationship with 3GPP and GSMA may be a good choice.

4. What contributions will you make to the MSF over the next year? What are your personal objectives should you be elected?

China Mobile will attend MSF/GSMA VoLTE test in 2012 and I will continue attend the test. I hope the test will succeed.

5. What advantages will the MSF gain by your contribution of resources, contacts and/or or influence in the industry?

China Mobile will attend the test as the biggest operator in Asia and I believe MSF IOT test will be more interesting with China Mobile membership.

6. Are you and your company willing to support a significant commitment of your time to the business of the MSF?

Yes. But I may have no so many chances to attend the MSF committee meeting but I think the conference call may be a good choice.

7. Please list your relevant business experience.

I am responsible for Packet Domain, focused on GPRS and EPC. And I am familiar with China Mobile current network.

8. Please list any Board of Directors and/or Committee experience if applicable.

Encourage their membership, and outline how important the coming year of forum activities will be
