Victor Malarek Headlines NASHI's Human Trafficking Conference.

NASHI hosted the 2009 Human Trafficking Conference and Banquet in Saskatoon on October 17. A capacity crowd participated in presentations by the Saskatoon City Police and local social justice groups followed by round table discussions and action plans.

The evening banquet featured a "no holds barred" expose of the root cause of Human Trafficking by CTV investigative journalist and author Victor Malarek. Using research from his latest book "The Johns: Sex For Sale And The Men Who Buy It", Victor told it as it is to a sold out audience.

NASHI Takes Malarek On Road Trip

At 5:00 A.M. the morning after the conference, 7 NASHI volunteers piled Mr. Malarek and some coffee into their cars and headed for Edmonton to attend a noon luncheon. Victor presented his powerful message to another sell out crowd for the Maple Leaf Project, which supports NASHI's Safe House.

NASHI Volunteers In Ukraine

17 volunteers from Saskatchewan and Alberta spent some significant time this past summer, working on the Safe House in Ukraine. They assisted with interior demolition and general labour, but more importantly, showed the people of the village NASHI's dedication to the project. A Service of Thanksgiving was held where the names of all donors and volunteers were read to recognize your contributions.

NASHI Receives Charitable Status

After a thorough qualifying process, NASHI received its official Canadian Registered Charity number. All receipts for 2009 donations will be mailed out by the end of January 2010.
