3.4 Basis of Payment. Payment for the work described above, including all material, equipment, labor and any other incidental work necessary to complete this item, will be considered completely covered by the contract lump sum price for "Heat Straightening".

4.0 HEAT STRAIGHTENING OF DAMAGED STRINGER:

4.1.1 Description. This work shall consist of furnishing the necessary materials, labor, and equipment for heat straightening the damaged stringer. This work shall be in accordance with this job special provision, the bridge plans and as required by the engineer.

4.2.1 Experience Requirements.

4.2.2 The contractor's organization shall have at least 5 years of experience in conducting heat- straightening repairs for damaged steel structures. During the preceding three year period, the contractor shall have conducted an average of at least 2 heat-straightening projects per year. Experience documentation shall include: date of project, location, bridge owner, number and type of members straightened, and duration of project.

4.2.3 The contractor's field supervisor shall be a registered professional engineer qualified to practice in one of the following disciplines: structural, metallurgical, or welding engineering.

4.3 Equipment

4.3.1 Heating shall be with an oxygen-fuel combination. The fuel may be propane, acetylene or other similar fuel as may be selected by the contractor, subjected to the engineer's approval.

4.3.2 Heat application shall be by single or multiple orifice tips only. The size of the tip shall be proportional to the thickness of the heated material. No cutting torch heads are permitted.

4.3.3 Jacks, come-alongs or other force application devices shall be gauged and calibrated so that the force exerted by the device may be controlled and measured. No external force shall be applied to the structure by the contractor unless it is measured.

4.4 Damage Assessment

4.4.1 Suspected areas of cracking determined from visual inspection shall be called to the attention of the engineer and shall be inspected by one or more of the following methods as applicable:

- (a) Liquid penetrant examination as described in ASTM E165 (1994 or latest edition).
- (b) Magnetic-Particle testing as described in ASTM E709 (1994 or latest edition).
- (c) Ultrasonic examination as described in section 6, part C of the ANSI/AASHTO/AWS Bridge Welding Code D1.5, American Welding Society (1996 or latest edition).
- (d) Radiographic examination as described in section 6, part B of the ANSI/AASHTO/AWS Bridge Welding Code D1.5, American Welding Society (1996 or latest edition).

4.4.2 The contractor shall identify and document all yield zones, yield lines and associated damage and provide this information to the engineer prior to initiation of heat straightening by either visual inspection or measurements.

4.4.3 Steel with strains up to 100 times the yield strain may be repaired by heat straightening. For strains greater than this limit, the engineer shall determine if heat straightening may be used.

4.4.4 Cracks and/or strains exceeding 100 times the yield strain, or other serious defects shall be called to the attention of the engineer.

4.4.5 The contractor shall prepare and submit a work plan to the engineer for approval prior to beginning repairs.

4.5 Heat Application

4.5.1 The temperature of the steel during heat straightening shall not exceed the following:

- (a) 650°C (1,200°F) for Carbon Steels.
- (b) 620°C (1,100°F) for A514 and A709 (grades 100 and 100W) steels.
- (c) 565°C (1,050°F) for A709 grade 70W steel.

4.5.2 The Contractor shall use one or more of the following methods for routine, ongoing, documented temperature verification during heat straightening:

- (a) Temperature sensitive crayons.
- (b) Pyrometer.
- (c) Infrared non-contact thermometer.

- 4.5.3 The material should be heated in a single pass following the specified pattern and allowed to cool to below 120°C (250°F) prior to re-heating.
- 4.5.4 Heating patterns and sequences shall be selected to match the type of damage and cross section shape.
- 4.5.5 Vee heats shall be shifted over the yield zone on successive heating cycles.
- 4.5.6 Simultaneous vee heats may be used provided that the clear spacing between vees is greater than the width of the plate element.
- 4.5.7 Repair of previously heat-straightened members in the same region of damage may be conducted once. Further repairs shall not be performed without the approval of the engineer.

4.6 Application of Jacking Forces

4.6.1 Jacks shall be placed so that forces are relieved as straightening occurs during cooling.

4.6.2 Magnitude of Jacking Forces

(a) Jacking shall be limited so that the maximum bending moment in the heated zone shall be less than 50 percent of the plastic moment capacity of the member or major bending element. For local damage, the jacking force shall be limited to 50 percent of initial yield of the element.

(b) The jacking force shall be adjusted so that the sum of jacking-induced moments and estimated residual moments shall be less than 50 percent of the plastic moment capacity of the member. As an alternative to considering residual moments, the moment due to jacking forces can be limited to 25 percent of the plastic moment capacity of the member during the first two heating cycles. For additional heating cycles, the limit of 50 percent may again be used.

4.6.3 The contractor shall determine and document the maximum jacking force for each damage location, and the proposed sequence of jacking and heating. Copies of the documentation shall be submitted to the engineer for acceptance before beginning repairs. Modifications due to changing condition shall be submitted to the engineer. The maximum jacking force may be controlled by measuring the deflection resulting from the jacking force.

4.6.4 The calibration of jacks and electronic temperature monitoring equipment shall be performed and documented monthly, and load cells used for calibration must be certified within a two year period.

4.7 Field Supervision of Repairs

4.7.1 Jacking forces shall be monitored to insure that limits are not exceeded.

4.7.2 Heating patterns shall be approved by the engineer.

4.7.3 Heating temperatures shall be routinely monitored to insure compliance with specified limits.

4.8 Field Supervision of Repairs

4.8.1 The dimensions of heat-straightened structural members shall conform to the tolerances specified in Table A1, except as noted below.

Table A1 - Recommended Tolerances for Heat Straightening Repair.

Member Type	Recommended Minimum Tolerance^{1,2}
Beam/Girder overall at impact point	½ in over 20 ft ¾ in over 20 ft
Local Web Deviations	d/100 but not less than ¼ in
Local Flange Deviations	b/100 but not less than ¼ in

² Tolerances for curved or cambered members should account for the original shape of the member

4.8.2 The above tolerance limits may be relaxed at the discretion of the engineer, based on one or more of the following considerations:

- (a) Type and location of damage in the member.
- (b) Time considerations resulting from the nature of traffic congestion during the repair operation.
- (c) Degree of restoration required to restore structural integrity.

4.9 Method of Measurement. No measurement will be made.

4.10 Basis of Payment. Payment for the above described work including all material, labor, tools, equipment, temporary jacks and all incidentals necessary to complete this item of work will be considered completely covered by the contract lump sum price for Heat Straightening.

- 7.1.8 The MHTC reserves the right to purchase goods and services using the state-purchasing card.
- 7.1.9 MoDOT is exempt from paying Missouri Sales Tax, Missouri Use Tax and Federal Excise Tax. However, the contractor may themselves be responsible for the payment of taxes on materials they purchase to fulfill the contract. A Federal Excise Tax Exemption Certificate will be furnished to the successful bidder as part of the contracting process.
