Joseph Siprut is the founder and managing partner of Siprut PC. His practice encompasses a wide spectrum of litigation, with an emphasis on challenging cases against powerful, well-funded adversaries. He has been appointed lead or co-lead class counsel in some of the largest and most complex class actions in the country, and has substantial first-chair experience in all aspects of litigation, including trial, arbitration, and mediation. He was named a "Super Lawyer" in Illinois for Class Action Litigation, and holds an AV Preeminent rating by Martindale Hubble, the highest possible peer review rating. Mr. Siprut was also selected for membership in the Multi-Million Dollar Advocates forum, one of the most prestigious groups of trial lawyers in the United States. Membership is limited to attorneys who have won million and multi-million dollar verdicts and settlements, and fewer than 1% of U.S. lawyers are members.

Mr. Siprut has appeared in dozens of publications and television and radio broadcasts worldwide, including CBS Radio, NPR, ESPN, Bloomberg Law, Law360, the Chicago Tribune, and more. He has been deemed by the media as the "Friend of the Frequent Fliers" for his successful litigation crusades against the airline industry on behalf of airline customers, as well as a "Leading Sports Reformer" for his advocacy to combat the problem of concussions and head injuries in college sports.

Mr. Siprut is an Adjunct Professor at Northwestern University School of Law, where he teaches in the Trial Advocacy program. He is a frequent author and speaker, having published over 25 articles in the nation's leading law reviews and legal journals.
