EVIDENCE TABLES

Disability Service Connection
To support a claim for service connection, the evidence must show: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• You had an injury in service, or a disease that began in or was made permanently worse during service, or there was an event in service that caused an injury or disease; AND</li> <li>• You have a current physical or mental disability. This may be shown by medical evidence or by lay evidence of persistent and recurrent symptoms of disability that are visible or observable; AND</li> <li>• A relationship exists between your current disability and an injury, disease, symptoms, or event in service. This may be shown by medical records or medical opinions or, in certain cases, by lay evidence. However, under certain circumstances, VA may presume that certain current disabilities were caused by service, even if there is no specific evidence proving this in your particular claim. The cause of a disability is presumed for the following veterans who have certain diseases: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Former prisoners of war;</li> <li>• Veterans who have certain chronic or tropical diseases that become evident within a specific period of time after discharge from service;</li> <li>• Veterans who were exposed to ionizing radiation, mustard gas, or Lewisite while in service;</li> <li>• Veterans who were exposed to certain herbicides, such as by serving in Vietnam; or</li> <li>• Veterans who served in the Southwest Asia theater of operations during the Gulf War.</li> </ul> </li> </ul>
To support a claim for service connection based upon a period of active duty for training, the evidence must show: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• You were disabled during active duty for training due to disease or injury incurred or aggravated in the line of duty; AND</li> <li>• You have a current physical or mental disability. This may be shown by medical evidence or by lay evidence of persistent and recurrent symptoms of disability that are visible or observable; AND</li> <li>• There is a relationship between your current disability and the disease or injury incurred or aggravated during active duty for training. This may be shown by medical records or medical opinions or, in certain cases, by lay evidence.</li> </ul>
To support a claim for service connection based upon a period of inactive duty training, the evidence must show: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• You were disabled during inactive duty training due to an injury incurred or aggravated in the line of duty or an acute myocardial infarction, cardiac arrest, or cerebrovascular accident during inactive duty training; AND</li> <li>• You have a current physical or mental disability. This may be shown by medical evidence or by lay evidence of persistent and recurrent symptoms of disability that are visible or observable; AND</li> <li>• There is a relationship between your current disability and your inactive duty training. This may be shown by medical records or medical opinions or, in certain cases, by lay evidence.</li> </ul>

In order to reopen a claim previously denied by VA, we need new and material evidence. New and material evidence must raise a reasonable possibility of substantiating your claim. The evidence cannot simply be repetitive or cumulative of the evidence we had when we previously decided your claim. VA will make reasonable efforts to help you obtain currently existing evidence. However, we cannot provide a medical examination or obtain a medical opinion until your claim is successfully reopened.

- To qualify as new, the evidence must currently exist and be submitted to VA for the first time
- In order to be considered material, the additional existing evidence must pertain to the reason your claim was previously denied

Secondary Service Connection

To support a claim for compensation based upon an additional disability that was caused or aggravated by a service-connected disability, the evidence must show:

- You currently have a physical or mental disability shown by medical evidence or by lay evidence of persistent and recurrent symptoms of disability that are visible or observable, in addition to your service-connected disability; AND
- Your service-connected disability either caused or aggravated your additional disability. This may be shown by medical records or medical opinions or, in certain cases, by lay evidence. However, VA may presume service-connection for cardiovascular disease developing in a claimant with certain service-connected amputation(s) of one or both lower extremities.

Increased Disability Compensation

If VA previously granted service connection for your disability and you are seeking an increased evaluation of your service-connected disability, we need medical or lay evidence to show a worsening or increase in severity and the effect that worsening or increase has on your ability to work.

Temporary Total Disability Rating

In order to support a claim for a temporary total disability rating due to hospitalization, the evidence must show:

- You were treated for more than 21 days for a service-connected disability at a VA or other approved hospital; OR
- You underwent hospital observation at VA expense for a service-connected disability for more than 21 days.

In order to support a claim for a temporary total disability rating due to surgical or other treatment performed by a VA or other approved hospital or outpatient facility, the evidence must show:

- The surgery or treatment was for a service-connected disability; AND
- The surgery required convalescence of at least one month; OR
- The surgery resulted in severe postoperative residuals, such as incompletely healed surgical wounds, stumps of recent amputations, therapeutic immobilizations, house confinement, or the required use of a wheelchair or crutches; OR
- One major joint or more was immobilized by a cast without surgery.

Individual Unemployability

In order to support a claim for a total disability rating based on individual unemployability, the evidence must show:

- That your service-connected disability or disabilities are sufficient, without regard to other factors, to prevent you from performing the mental and/or physical tasks required to get or keep substantially gainful employment; AND
- Generally, you meet certain disability percentage requirements as specified in 38 Code of Federal Regulations 4.16 (i.e. one disability ratable at 60 percent or more, OR more than one disability with one disability ratable at 40 percent or more and a combined rating of 70 percent or more).

In order to support a claim for an extra-schedular evaluation based on exceptional circumstances, the evidence must show:

- That your service-connected disability or disabilities present such an exceptional or unusual disability picture, due to such factors as marked interference with employment or frequent periods of hospitalization, that application of the regular schedular standards is impractical.

Compensation Under 38 U.S.C. 1151

In order to support a claim for compensation under 38 U.S.C. 1151, the evidence must show that, as a result of VA hospitalization, medical or surgical treatment, examination, or training, you have:

- An additional disability or disabilities; OR
- An aggravation of an existing injury or disease; AND
- The disability was the direct result of VA fault such as carelessness, negligence, lack of proper skill, or error in judgment, or not a reasonably expected result or complication of the VA care or treatment; OR
- The direct result of participation in a VA Vocational Rehabilitation and Employment or compensated work therapy program

Special Monthly Compensation

- You require the aid of another person in order to perform personal functions required in everyday living, such as bathing, feeding, dressing yourself, attending to the wants of nature, adjusting prosthetic devices, or protecting yourself from the hazards of your daily environment (38 Code of Federal Regulation 3.352(a)); OR
- You are bedridden, in that your disability or disabilities requires that you remain in bed apart from any prescribed course of convalescence or treatment (38 Code of Federal Regulation 3.352(a)).

In order to support a claim for increased benefits based on an additional disability or being housebound, the evidence must show:

- You have a single service-connected disability evaluated as 100 percent disabling AND an additional service-connected disability, or disabilities, evaluated as 60 percent or more disabling; OR
- You have a single service-connected disability evaluated as 100 percent disabling AND, due solely to your service-connected disability or disabilities, you are permanently and substantially confined to your immediate premises

In order to support a claim for increased benefits based on your spouse's need for aid and attendance, per the provisions of 38 C.F.R. § 3.351(c), the evidence must show:

- Your spouse is blind or so nearly blind as to have corrected visual acuity of 5/200 or less, in both eyes, or concentric contraction of the visual field to 5 degrees or less; OR
- Your spouse is a patient in a nursing home because of mental or physical incapacity; OR
- Your spouse requires the aid of another person in order to perform personal functions required in everyday living, such as bathing, feeding, dressing, attending to the wants of nature, adjusting prosthetic devices, or protecting him or her from the hazards of his or her daily environment (See 38 C.F.R. § 3.352(a) for complete explanation)

IMPORTANT: For additional benefits to be payable for a spouse, the veteran must be entitled to compensation and evaluated as 30 percent or more disabling.

Specially Adapted Housing or Special Home Adaptation

To support a claim for specially adapted housing, the evidence must show you have one of the following service-connected disabilities rated as permanently and totally disabling:

- The loss, or permanent loss of use, of both lower extremities, that requires the use of braces, crutches, canes, or a wheelchair in order to move from place to place; OR
- Blindness in both eyes so that you can see only light, together with the loss, or loss of use, of one lower extremity; OR
- The loss, or permanent loss of use, of one lower extremity, together with a disease or injury that affects your balance or ability to move forward, and requires the use of braces, crutches, canes, or a wheelchair in order to move from place to place; OR
- The loss, or permanent loss of use, of one lower extremity together with the loss, or permanent loss of use, of one upper extremity that affects your balance or ability to move forward and requires the use of braces, crutches, canes, or a wheelchair in order to move from place to place; OR
- The loss, or loss of use, of both upper extremities, so as to preclude use of the arms at or above the elbows; OR
- Severe burn injury

- Permanent impairment of vision in both eyes, resulting in:
  - Vision of 20/200 or less in the better eye with glasses; OR
  - Vision of 20/200 or better, if there is a severe defect in your peripheral vision.

You may be entitled to only adaptive equipment if you have ankylosis ("freezing") of at least one knee or one hip due to service-connected disability. Medical evidence, including a VA examination, will show these things. VA will provide an examination if it determines that one is necessary.

Helpless Child

To support a claim for benefits based on a veteran's child being helpless, the evidence must show that the child, before his or her 18th birthday, became permanently incapable of self-support due to a mental or physical disability.

IMPORTANT: For additional benefits to be payable for a child, the veteran must be entitled to compensation and evaluated as 30 percent or more disabling.

HOW VA DETERMINES THE EFFECTIVE DATE

If we grant your claim, the beginning date of your entitlement or increased entitlement to benefits will generally be based on the following factors:

- When we received your claim, OR
- When the evidence shows a level of disability that supports a certain rating under the rating schedule

If VA received your claim prior to or within one year of your separation from the military, entitlement will be from the day following the date of your separation.

HOW VA DETERMINES THE DISABILITY RATING

When we find disabilities to be service-connected, we assign a disability rating. That rating can be changed if there are changes in your condition. Depending on the disability involved, we will assign a rating from 0 percent to as much as 100 percent. VA uses a schedule for evaluating disabilities that is published as title 38, Code of Federal Regulations, Part 4. In rare cases, we can assign a disability level other than the levels found in the schedule for a specific condition if your impairment is not adequately covered by the schedule.

We consider evidence of the following in determining disability rating:

- Nature and symptoms of the condition;
- Severity and duration of the symptoms; AND
- Impact of the condition and symptoms on employment.

Examples of evidence that you should tell us about or give to us that may affect how we assign a disability evaluation include the following:

- Information about on-going treatment records, including VA or other Federal treatment records, you have not previously told us about;
- Social Security determinations;
- Statements from employers as to job performance, lost time, or other information regarding how your condition(s) affect your ability to work; OR
- Statements discussing your disability symptoms from people who have witnessed how the symptoms affect you
