RE: NAA2471

Dear Ms. Kiett:

The course entitled "13th Annual Taxpayers Against Fraud Education Fund Conference and Awards Dinner" has been approved for 9.0 credit hours including (0.0) credit hours for Ethics by the Virginia Mandatory Continuing Legal Education Board.

- The ethics session did not focus on a recognized legal ethics topic.
- Only sessions with written instructional materials are approvable for CLE credit. The following sessions did not have materials: "Whistleblower Perspectives" and "Update on the IRS".

Accreditation of this program is approved through October 31, 2013. Enclosed are the applicable certification forms for your course. Virginia attorneys may now certify their attendance at our website upon receipt of this form and the course ID# may not be provided without it. Course attendance lists are not processed as certification of attendance.

Beginning November 1, 2011, pre-recorded programs are limited to eight credit hours for annual MCLE compliance. A minimum of four credit hours from live interactive courses is required. See FAQ's at http://www.vsb.org/site/members/faqs-2012-mcle-reg-changes.

Please contact the MCLE Department if you have any questions.

Sincerely,

Gale M. Cartwright Director of MCLE
