Dear Sir or Madam:

In Notice 2002-34, the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) introduced a voluntary compliance program for political organizations that have not met the reporting requirements enacted in July 2000. Our records indicate that you electronically filed Form 8871, Political Organization Notice of 527 Status. However, as of April 30, 2002, we do not have any record that you filed Form 8871 in writing.

Unless it meets one of the exceptions, a political organization must file Form 8871 both electronically and in writing within 24 hours of the date the organization was established. The requirements and exceptions are discussed in the enclosed Notice 2002-34. Any such organization that fails to file timely both electronically and in writing will be treated as a taxable political organization until both forms are filed as required.

If you filed a written Form 8871 with the Ogden Service Center prior to April 30, 2002, please inform us so we may correct our records. Please provide us with the date you filed, the exact name and EIN used, and any other information that may help us resolve this issue. If you have not yet filed a written Form 8871, you will not be assessed any tax, penalty or interest due to a late filing if you do so by July 15, 2002. Form 8871 is available on the IRS website at <http://www.irs.gov/polorgs>. You will not be treated as a tax-exempt political organization unless you satisfy these filing requirements.

Please note that you may also be required to file Form 1120-POL, U.S. Income Tax Return for Certain Political Organizations, or Form 990, Return of Organization Exempt from Income Tax. See the enclosed Notice 2002-34, discussing these requirements.

If you have any questions, please call our Customer Service at 1-877-829-5500 between the hours of 8:00 a.m. and 6:30 p.m. ET. If you prefer, you may write to us at
