

'PEOPLE' ISSUES IN PUBLIC PROCUREMENT & COMMISSIONING

Impact of TUPE Regulations 2006 and April 2009 Equality Bill

LONDON-2010-DATE TO BE CONFIRMED

Success in public procurement and commissioning tends to be measured in terms of value for money and efficiency, however all parties concerned recognise that successful service delivery is not just about 'economics'. People issues matter. You need a well-motivated workforce, so a balance needs to be struck! There is a 'raft of legislation' to protect employee rights, including The Transfer of Undertakings (Protection of Employment) Regulations (TUPE) 2006 and equality obligations that are enhanced in the April 2009 Equality Bill. This popular, one-day seminar will examine these and related issues. No previous experience of TUPE/Equality Legislation will be assumed. The presenter is a leading expert on public procurement and commissioning and the seminar will be run as an interactive day with plenty of opportunities for questions and discussion. A detailed workbook will be provided to each delegate.
