

Form Instructions – Financial Compliance Letters

Purpose:

There are 3 letters dealing with the issue of compliance to AYSO financial guidelines:

- TC-310 Notification of Financial Non-Compliance
- TC-311 Follow-up to Notification of Financial Non-Compliance
- TC-312 Notification of Tournament Denial

These letters are used when a tournament host region is past due on remitting funds to the National Support & Training Center.

Form letters are provided on the website, with a standard format and content. These letters must be used as they are shown, modifying only to add the specific details (i.e. region name, recipient name, etc.).

Recommendations:

TC-310 Notification of Financial Non-Compliance	The purpose of the Financial Non-Compliance letter is to provide a sample or reference letter to be utilized by the area or section director as appropriate to seek verification or resolution to an outstanding balance as recorded by AYSO’s Financial Department. Typically, this letter is sent upon realization that the tournament host is out of compliance. This will be at the time that a tournament authorization package is presented for approval, if not sooner.
TC-311 Follow-up to Notification of Financial Non-Compliance	The purpose of the Financial Non-Compliance Letter is to provide a sample or reference letter to be utilized by the area or section director as appropriate as a follow up to the tournament host when a response has not been received from the initial TC-310 letter. Typically, this letter is sent if a response is not received from the first letter of compliance as follows; <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • If the tournament is less than 3 months away, send the letter if 14 days have passed with no response. • If the tournament is more than 3 months away, send the letter if 30 days have passed.
TC-312 Notification of Tournament Denial	The purpose of the Notification of Tournament Denial is to provide a sample or a reference

	document to be utilized by the area or section director as appropriate following no responses from previous letters (TC-310 and TC-311). This document provides the tool for applicable steps to be taken regarding the possible suspension of a tournament. Typically, this letter is sent if a response is not received from the second letter of compliance as follows; <ul style="list-style-type: none">• If the tournament is less than 3 months away, send the letter if 14 days have passed with no response.• If the tournament is more than 3 months away, send the letter if 30 days have passed.
--	---