

After School Clubs!

Dear Parents,

We are excited to inform you that starting the week of April 4th several teachers are proud to offer a selection of after school clubs (2:40-3:40).

- Please look through the following list and complete the request form.
  - completing the form does not guarantee membership- it is only a request.
  - You may choose more than one club if they don't conflict
- Sponsors of the clubs will notify students with written notification the week before clubs start.
- Students must commit to each meeting date to be included in the club.
  - If you are absent from school, you are not expected at the club.
  - If for some reason you leave school, a parent should notify the sponsor of your absence to the club.
  - If a student is expected at a club and does not show, we will contact a parent.
- Donations will be collected at the first meeting
  - The donations are non-refundable and can not be pro-rated.
- If you have any questions about a particular club notify the sponsor.

Raider Review Newspaper    Monday    Mrs. Azzarello    3rd- 5th grade

The Raider Review is an after-school newspaper club that provides students with the opportunity to further develop their writing and editing skills. Raider Review students conduct interview, report on school news, write articles and poetry, and produce a newspaper which is published and shared with the school community. The Raider Review club is designed for 3rd-5th grade students who have a particular interest in writing and being published. This is a great way for young students to work on their writing skills and prepare for high school while also providing a valuable service to their school community.

Art Around the World    Wednesday    Mrs. Nugarus    K-3rd

Ever wonder how or why art is created in different countries? In Art Around the World, students will be learning how and why art work is done in six countries. Each week students will be learning about art work from Italy, China, Africa, India, Japan and Mexico. Students will be given a brief lesson on famous art in each country each week. After the brief lesson, students will be making their very own work of art!

Defining Dignity    Thursday    Mrs. Doyle    6th -8th girls only

Calling 6th through 8th grade girls! Let's enjoy time together getting to know more about who we are, discovering our "girl genius". We will be using the Endow series for Middle School students, "Defining Dignity".

In a small group we will share activities based on the writings of Pope John Paul II written in a simple, yet beautiful way. The activities will be an enjoyable way to grow in our faith and understand that we are daughters of God. Through our discussions, we will grow in our understanding of the truth of our God given dignity.

Donation: $40 (this is only a four week club).

Book Club      Wednesday      Mrs. Condon      4th -6th

Does your son or daughter love to read? Do you wish your son or daughter loved to read? This is the perfect club for your family! We will be reading and discussing the high-interest book, The Honest Truth by Dan Gemeinhart. A short blurb about the book can be found below. During our meetings we be making real life connections along with discussion on comprehension. Also, we will looking at a video series created by the author in which he discusses the book and even takes us to the places that were the inspiration for the settings and events in the book. I am particularly excited to note that the author, Dan Gemeinhart, has agreed to Skype with us!
