Study Title: Canine Genome Project

I do hereby give my consent to have my dog _____ participate in a research project being conducted by Dr. Chieko Azuma, Tufts University.

I understand that this project is to use DNA/tissue for the canine genome project collaboration with Broad institute (Cambridge, MA). The project aims to map and identify genes associated with canine malignant cancers and other diseases.

I agree that all samples (DNA/tissue) become the property of the investigators and can be used for any lawful purpose by the investigators. I further agree that the information collected as a result of my participation in this clinical study may be used for publications in the scientific literature. However, the data will be presented without specifically identifying myself or my pet.

I understand that I will not receive specific information regarding dog's DNA/genes.
