UKPIPS CHRISTMAS CARDS FOR 2012

Earlier in the summer, we invited members of the Forum and visitors to our website to submit photos, drawings or pictures for our Christmas Card fundraising programme. We had a very encouraging response for which we thank everyone who took part. The idea was to encourage anyone with a family member or close friend with a Primary Antibody or Primary Immune Deficiency to be able to regard the Christmas Card fundraising campaign as a 'community' effort - rather than just something that was the idea of the Trustees. We hope you like all of them and it's clear we've got some very talented children out there with very impressive artistic skills!

We have chosen the cards for sale for this year and we are selling them in two packs (Pack A and Pack B) comprising five cards and envelopes each. The cards measure approx 6x4 inches in landscape or portrait and the price is £3.35 to include the cost of postage to you. The choice of how many you want of either pack is yours and the inside of the card is left blank for you to add your choice of greeting. The next two pages show the cards you'll receive in each pack but you'll soon find them on our website at www.ukpips.org.uk

Also included is a simple order form which we would ask you to print out, then complete by hand and send with your payment please to UKPIPS at the address shown below. We will do our best to despatch your cards to you as soon as we receive your order and payment. Only cheques or postal orders please, as we cannot process credit or debit cards. Deliveries should be underway by 1st November 2012 or very soon afterwards.

Unless we have a really exceptional demand, we will not be doing a second print run for 2012 but be assured, we'll be measuring orders very closely so we can have a better idea of likely sales in 2013 and future years. A very Happy Christmas to you and yours from all of us at UKPIPS - and thank you in advance for your very valued order.

Some people say that Santa Claus
Is not a magic man
But Mum and I have seen him do
What no other person can.

We first saw him one morning
In a big department store
Then later in another shop
Looking shorter than before.

He was wearing different boots
And his white beard was much longer
A few dark hairs hung from his nose
And his handshake was much stronger.

We had tea in a restaurant
Just to shelter from the rain
I couldn't quite believe my eyes
For there he was again!

Had he been over-magicing?
For he'd somehow shrunk his feet
And his tummy bulged tremendously
Like he'd had too much to eat.

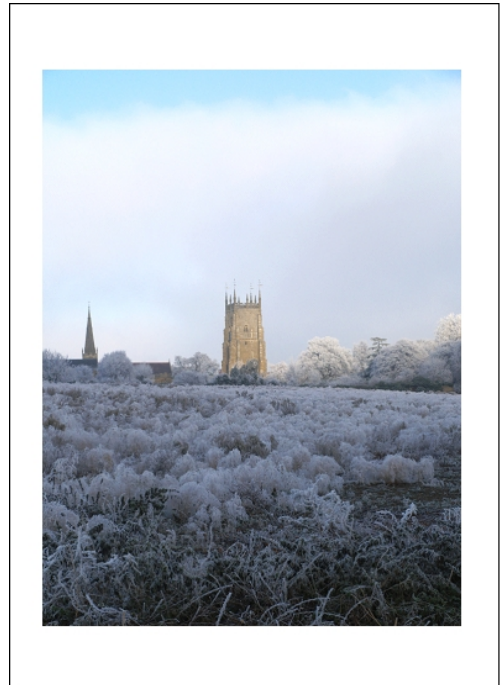

Then later on when Mum and I
Were waiting for a bus
He was there outside a sweet shop
And he smiled and waved to us.

If you think he's not magic
You must be quite a dunce
For no-one else but Santa Claus
Could be everywhere at once!
