Two High Holiday Follow-ups...

Dear Friends:

I want to thank everyone who participated in this year's High Holy Day Services: They were a most moving experience and I remain honored to have been part of them.

Next, as promised in my Rosh Ha-Shana Evening Sermon, attached along with the Temple Bulletin is my 100-question test of Basic Jewish Information. For everyone who submits the answers back to me with a passing grade of 70 or better, I will donate to Temple Emanu-El the US equivalent of 1 Israeli shekel. Have at it and have fun! (My email is sjacobs@bama.ua.edu)

Finally, and more importantly, during both Rosh Ha-Shana and Yom Kippur members of our Holy Congregation are already stepping up to read Torah and offer the b'rachot/blessing. We still have openings; let me know if you're interested and we'll work together.

FOR NEXT YEAR:

Rosh Ha-Shana: Reader Amy Rogers; Blesser Gary Rogers

Yom Kippur Morning: Reader I OPEN; Blesser OPEN

Reader II Bonnie Oppenheimer; Blesser OPEN

Yom Kippur Afternoon: Reader I Hattie Kaufman; Blesser Alan Kaufman

Reader II OPEN; Blesser OPEN

Reader III Shelli Lavender; Blesser Yaari Lavender

What a simply marvelous way to begin 5776 with the knowledge that we have members who take so seriously the understanding that our Holy Torah is nothing less than y'rushat Ya'akov/the inheritance of the entire Jewish people. 5777 promises to even an even more special and more exciting beginning; let us hope and pray so.

With our very best wishes to you and yours as we travel together this Holy Jewish Year.—Dr. Louanne & Rabbi Steve Jacobs

To congregants:

Just a brief thank you note to everyone for your thoughtful contributions to our congregation in honor of our 25th wedding anniversary. The Oneg Shabbat in our honor was incredible and the mezuzah is already on our doorpost. Your thoughtfulness makes the celebration even more special.—Steve and Louanne Jacobs

Co-Presidents' Message

EVERYONE showed true congregational spirit during our High Holidays. There are so many to thank, that we hope we will not leave anyone out.

First, not least, Rabbi Jacobs and Dan Siegel did a wonderful job with services. We have engaged Dan again for next year! A happy surprise came when congregants not only did the usual aliyot, but actually read from the Torah. The first to do this was Amy Rogers. Next year, others want to step up, literally, and read a portion. The Rabbi has put a list of possible slots into his message on page 1.

The Men's Club set up the chairs and books ahead of Rosh Hashanah. Dawn Cook and Joanna Jacobs coordinated the Rosh Hashanah oneg, with the help of numerous bakers and assistants. Amy Ahmed, Wendy Goldstein, and many others organized the Break-the-Fast at which we hosted many students as well. In fact, some of those students helped us put away chairs and books after the event.

A great start to 5776! We will make the whole year just as exciting.

In the meantime, consider taking Rabbi Jacobs's challenge—print and answer his 100 questions about Judaism and send them to him. If you get a 70% or better, he'll have to contribute a shekel (as of today, about $.25) to the Temple! Let's capture all his change...

Leaves of Life

Leaves of Life are available to be engraved and placed on the Dinoff Tree of Life in our lobby. These may be purchased for simchas—for instance, anniversaries, landmark birthdays, graduations, births, b'nai mitzvot, or other occasions. They are also a wonderful gift for friends or relatives to honor their service in the community. Order forms are available on the Temple bulletin board.

As we build our Temple website, and encourage everyone to refer to it, we hope to post lots of pictures of our activities and events on-line. No pictures of children will be posted without parental permission.

The pictures would not only publicize what we do, but enable us all to enjoy and remember these events. The postings would be pictures only, with no identifying names. We do, however, recognize that some folks are camera-shy and may not be comfortable having his or her picture posted. Please contact Amy Ahmed, our webmaster, if you would like her not to use pictures that include you. We will try to accommodate your preferences.

Reminder: UA's weapons policy

Although we own our building, it is sitting on University of Alabama land (which we lease). We have many benefits and responsibilities surrounding this relationship. One obligation is to abide by the University's weapons policy, which prohibits carrying weapons anywhere on campus. For a full statement of the policy, please go to: <http://policies.ua.edu/weapons.html>

The Sisterhood Schmooze

Hi Everyone!

It's Pam and Amy

It was wonderful to spend the holidays with everyone again this year! A big thank you goes out to Dawn Cook and Joanna Jacobs for co-chairing the Rosh Hashanah Oneg. Thanks to everyone who brought a sweet treat to share, and thanks to our two Apple Ambassadors, Lisa Katz and Betty Jo Goldstein.

The Yom Kippur Break-the-Fast was wonderful and would not have been possible without everyone's assistance. Thanks to Hillel for opening their doors to our community once again this year. Bringing the congregation together with the students in this meaningful way is gratifying.

Thanks go to our chair for Break-the-Fast, Doris Marriott. Many thanks also to our bakers, cooks, donors, and helpers: Shari Augins, Lisa Besnoy, Beth Borak, Doris Blum, Doris Cohen, Dawn Cook, Wendy Goldstein, Betty Jo Goldstein, Joanna Jacobs, Hattie Kaufman, Qi-oli Liang, Betty Lichstein, Kim Linetsky, Bonnie Oppenheimer, Anna Singer, Marcy Weinberger, Shelli Lavender, Paula Quarles, Marianne Rosenzweig, Donna Tucker, Roberta Weisberg, and Jason Marquis. Adult Education

Fall Torah Study will meet on Sept 27, Oct, 4 & 18, Nov 8 & 22, Dec. 6 & 20. Spring dates tba. Let Shari Augins know of anyone interested in joining Torah Study.

“Stepping Stones” We’ll meet 10 am to noon on dates to be announced, starting in August. Please contact Shari Augins at fgpsa@hotmail.com for further information.

JEWISH BOOK GROUP

We’re an informal group of addicted book-readers, and try to pick titles that have some relationship to Jewish life or history. We meet at noon for a brown-bag lunch on the following Mondays:

	Book	Oxford Jewish Stories
Mon, Nov 2	The Marriage of Opposites Alice Hoffman	“Angel Levine”

Feel free to join us I hope to see you at the meetings. We have some interesting discussions, especially if there are differences of opinions. E-mail or call me for further information.— Shari Augins (fgpsa@hotmail.com, 759-4105)

Torah Study

We have moved on to study the Talmud, the writings of the Prophets. This is the second division of the sacred writings. In the Hebrew canon the Prophets are divided into (1) the Former Prophets (Joshua, Judges, Samuel, and Kings) and (2) the Latter Prophets (Isaiah, Jeremiah, Ezekiel, and the Twelve, or Minor, Prophets: Hosea, Joel, Amos, Obadiah, Jonah, Micah, Nahum, Habakkuk, Zephaniah, Haggai, Zechariah, and Malachi). We will be working from The Jewish Study Bible, ed. by Brettler and Michael Fishbane. The book is easily available from Amazon (and use AmazonSmile—see below!).

This should be a fascinating continuation of our study, and we hope that many of you will join the discussion. We meet approximately twice a month, and the full schedule is available on the Temple calendar at our website. If you have any questions about this program, please feel free to contact Rabbi Jacobs, Shari Augins, or Hattie Kaufman. It is the interesting mix of students that really enriches the study,

Caring Days: Walk To Remember We are charter members of Caring Congregations, which supports Caring Days, the Alzheimer's daycare facility. This year's Walk to Remember will be held at University Mall on August 22, 8-10 am. Big Al, Sarah Patterson, and others will be there to sign autographs. Try to be there to make a great showing for Temple Emanu-El (and raise funds for Caring Days services.)

Shop Amazon SMILE and give to JUAF!

The next time you go onto Amazon to buy books, music, or kitchen gadgets, start at THIS URL:

<http://smile.amazon.com/ch/26-4722088> It will take you right into Amazon as usual—but .5% of whatever you spend will be donated to the Jewish United Appeal Fund of Tuscaloosa. As you know, half of what JUAF receives in donations or fundraising goes to the Temple, and half goes to Hillel. Even if you don't start at that url, you can select AmazonSmile and designate Jewish United Appeal Fund of Tuscaloosa as your preferred charity. Many thanks to the anonymous congregant who started this help for us. Note: JUAF HAS GOTTEN SEVERAL DIRECT DEPOSITS FROM AMAZON SMILE!

We need volunteers to deliver Meals on Wheels in October & November. It's not too soon to think of December, and all FIVE (5) of its Wednesdays, either. I am currently waiting to hear back from the Meals on Wheel coordinator regarding delivery schedules around the various holidays. There is no pointscheduling for a date on which there will be no meals to deliver.

For now, we know we need volunteers as follows:

October 14th = Two (2) volunteers needed.

November 4th = Two (2) volunteers needed.

December 2nd = Two (2) volunteers needed
