General: We need to know what steps are taken to overcome discrimination and ensure good practice.

For Example:-

Employer Real jobs, real pay for adults and young people

- 1 How and to what extent is the person/people with a learning disability being fully included in the workplace?
- 2 Is it PAID EMPLOYMENT? Is the salary equitable and how does it compare with that of other staff? How does the quality of employment reflect the person's abilities?
- 3 Briefly describe training in disability awareness that staff undertake.
- 4 Describe the amount and quality of support (if needed). How does training promote greater independence?
- 5 How user friendly is the workplace? What steps are taken to include the person with a learning disability in out-of-work activities?

Teacher/ Learning Support Assistant (LSA) or School/College

Sharing learning opportunities

- 1 How and to what extent does the Teacher/LSA enable the child/children/young people with a learning disability are included in all the activities at the school/college?
- 2 How has the nominee helped your child to participate fully in the social and academic life of the school eg breakfast clubs, school trips etc.
- 3 What imaginative/innovative teaching methods are used? What has been most beneficial to the children in the classroom? Please give examples.
- 4 How does the Teacher/ Learning Support Assistant communicate with parents/carers/professionals?
- 5 Please illustrate how pupils, staff and governors are made aware of and have an understanding of learning disability.

 'inclusion' is about children, regardless of their learning disability, learning together. It requires that schools/colleges become more creative in welcoming all children/young people.*

Volunteer People who make integration a reality

- 1 How does the volunteer's work promote integration in the community?
- 2 Is the nature of the work VOLUNTARY ie UNPAID?
- 3 How does the nominee use his/her initiative to substantially improve quality of life (over and above line of duty for staff)?
- 4 How does the volunteer promote a positive understanding of people with a learning disability and/or their families? (eg through support, teaching, information, the promotion of independence or advocating on somebody's behalf).

Local group/organisation

Integrating young people and adults into the community

- 1 How and to what extent is the person/persons with a learning disability included within a group/organisation?
- 2 Illustrate how the attitudes of other members of the group have changed?
- 3 Can you describe imaginative ways in which the group /organisation includes a person/persons with a learning disability in all the group's activities?
- 4 How does the group/ organisation go beyond the call of duty and promote positive attitudes towards people with a learning disability?

- 5 Is there training of staff/volunteers towards understanding disability?

Professional working with people with a learning disability
