INKSWEL

While at the other side of the world in Australia INKSWEL has an amazing worldwide mindset and collaborated with a lot of well known artists. This time he releases "The Ginseng Root EP", a boogie/house 12" with a '92 feel featuring BENNY BADGE and Amsterdam's TOM TRAGO.

A health conscious Inkswel brings the Ginseng power jams to his new home, Dopeness Galore. Bridging the gaps between late night club and sunset bboy vibes, the Ginseng Root Ep brings a healthy mix of soulful medicine.

'High All the time' a steady energy booster for those needing to be woken up, soulful mpc chops meet analogue moog madness and vocals that command the listeners ears. 'Salada Estrelar' smoothes out the edges setting a soulful tone on the first side of the record. The flip is the peak of the Ginseng boost, S.O.A.P song featuring dutch native Tom Trago provides the high energy but soulful fuel to keep the heart beating. This is nicely finished of with the title track 'Ginseng Root' featuring Inkswel's right hand man Benny Badge. Take two times daily or repeat when dance floor vibes needed.
