Canons of the Council of Trent on Justification

If anyone says that man may be justified before God by his own works, whether done through the teaching of human nature, or that of the law, without the grace of God through Jesus Christ; let him be anathema.

If anyone says that the grace of God, through Jesus Christ, is given only for this, that man may be able more easily to live justly, and to merit eternal life, as if, by free will without grace, he were able to do both, though hardly indeed and with difficulty; let him be anathema.

If anyone says that without the prevenient inspiration of the Holy Ghost, and without his help, man can believe, hope, love, or be penitent as he ought, so as that the grace of Justification may be bestowed upon him; let him be anathema.

If anyone says that man's free will moved and excited by God, by assenting to God exciting and calling, nowise co-operates towards disposing and preparing itself for obtaining the grace of Justification; that it cannot refuse its consent, if it would, but that, as something inanimate, it does nothing whatever and is merely passive; let him be anathema.

If anyone says that, since Adam's sin, the free will of man is lost and extinguished; or, that it is a thing with only a name without a reality, a figment, in fine, introduced into the Church by Satan; let him be anathema.

If anyone says that it is not in man's power to make his ways evil, but that the works that are evil God works as well as those that are good, not permissively only, but properly, and of Himself, in such wise that the treason of Judas is no less His own proper work than the vocation of Paul; let him be anathema. (to be continued)

Parishioners who are sick: if you know of parishioners who are sick or otherwise in special need of prayer, please send an email to the pastor's email account so that they can be included in future bulletins.

Second Saturday of Every Month: a small group of parishioners, normally led by one of our priests, meets after the 9am Mass to pray outside the abortion clinic on Powers Ferry Road in Marietta. Please join us to help remove this scourge from our midst.

Many thanks: to all those parishioners who generously and spontaneously contributed to offset medical costs for a fellow parishioner.

Parental Supervision and Internet Filters: According to Blessed are the Pure in Heart, Bishop Robert Finn's pastoral letter about the dangers of pornography, 90% of 8-16 year olds using the Internet have viewed pornography online (most while doing homework). Parental supervision and a reliable, proven internet filters are not optional extras. Recall that when Our Lady of Fatima showed the child seers the terrifying vision of hell, they could see souls falling into the fire like snowflakes. What is the eternal salvation of your children worth?

Upcoming Elections: voter registration forms for the state of Georgia are available at the back of church. Georgia Right to Life (<http://www.grtl.org/>) has compiled a list of candidates who have been vetted and approved. If you are able to vote it is important to do so: the turn out in primary elections is typically poor and so any vote cast tends to have more of an influence on the outcome of an election.

4. If any one denies, that infants, newly born from their mothers' wombs, even though they be sprung from baptized parents, are to be baptized; or says that they are baptized indeed for the remission of sins, but that they derive nothing of original sin from Adam, which has need of being expiated by the laver of regeneration for the obtaining life everlasting, whence it follows as a consequence, that in them the form of baptism, for the remission of sins, is understood to be not true, but false, let him be anathema. For that which the apostle has said, By one man sin entered into the world, and by sin death, and so death passed upon all men in whom all have sinned, is not to be understood otherwise than as the Catholic Church spread everywhere has always understood it. For, by reason of this rule of faith, from a tradition of the apostles, even infants, who could not as yet commit any sin of themselves, are for this cause truly baptized for the remission of sins, that in them that may be cleansed away by regeneration, which they have contracted by generation. For, unless a man be born again of water and the Holy Ghost, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God.

5. If any one denies, that, by the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, which is conferred in baptism, the guilt of original sin is remitted; or even asserts that the whole of that which has the true and proper nature of sin is not taken away; but says that it is only razed, or not imputed; let him be anathema. For, in those who are born again, there is nothing that God hates; because, There is no condemnation to those who are truly buried together with Christ by baptism into death; who walk not according to the flesh, but, putting off the old man, and putting on the new who is created according to God, are made innocent, immaculate, pure, harmless, and beloved of God, heirs indeed of God, but joint heirs with Christ; so that there is nothing whatever to retard their entrance into heaven. But this Holy Synod confesses and is sensible that in the baptized there remains concupiscence, or an incentive to sin; which, whereas it is left for our exercise, cannot injure those who consent not, but resist manfully by the grace of Jesus Christ; wherefore, he who shall have striven lawfully shall be crowned. This concupiscence, which the apostle sometimes calls sin, the Holy Synod declares that the Catholic Church has never understood it to be called sin, as being truly and properly sin in those born again, but because it is of sin, and inclines to sin.

This same Holy Synod does nevertheless declare that it is not its intention to include in this decree, where original sin is treated of, the blessed and immaculate Virgin Mary, the mother of God.

Decree of Council of Trent on Original Sin

That our Catholic faith, without which it is impossible to please God, may, errors being purged away, continue in its own perfect and spotless integrity, and that the Christian people may not be carried about with every wind of doctrine; whereas that old serpent, the perpetual enemy of mankind, amongst the very many evils with which the Church of God is in these our times troubled, has also stirred up not only new, but even old, dissensions touching original sin, and the remedy thereof; the sacred and holy, ecumenical and general Synod of Trent, wishing now to come to the reclaiming of the erring, and the confirming of the wavering, following the testimonies of the sacred Scriptures, of the holy Fathers, of the most approved councils, and the judgment and consent of the Church itself, ordains, confesses, and declares these things touching the said original sin:

1. If any one does not confess that the first man, Adam, when he had transgressed the commandment of God in Paradise, immediately lost the holiness and justice wherein he had been constituted; and that he incurred, through the offence of that prevarication, the wrath and indignation of God, and consequently death, with which God had previously threatened him, and, together with death, captivity under his power who thenceforth had the empire of death, that is to say, the devil, and that the entire Adam, through that offence of prevarication, was changed, in body and soul, for the worse; let him be anathema.

2. If anyone asserts, that the prevarication of Adam injured himself alone, and not his posterity; and that the holiness and justice, received of God, which he lost, he lost for himself alone, and not for us also; or that he, being defiled by the sin of disobedience, has only transfused death, and pains of the body, into the whole human race, but not sin also, which is the death of the soul; let him be anathema: whereas he contradicts the apostle who says; By one man sin entered into the world, and by sin death, and so death passed upon all men, in whom all have sinned. (To be continued ...)

CONGRATULATIONS: to Philip and Liliana Barks and family: their new-born daughter Carmen Jennifer was baptized and received into the Church on Saturday June 30.

Welcome to Fr. Joel Kiefer who arrived here on Monday and has been slowly acclimatizing to southern life (or is that acclimatizing to slow southern life?) Father Kiefer is from Bucks County, Pennsylvania, a suburb of Philadelphia. He attended parochial grade and high schools and graduated from West Point with a degree in Mathematics. Father was stationed at Fort Eustis, Virginia as a maritime Army transportation officer. He was deployed twice to U.S. missions in Africa and Haiti. Following his military service, Father entered Saint Charles Seminary and was ordained in 2004. After seven years of diocesan service, Father Kiefer began his first assignment with the Fraternity of St. Peter in June, 2011 at Saint Anne's Church in San Diego, California

Homeless Shelter Volunteers Needed at Immaculate Conception Church, downtown, on August 25 from 7:00am-Noon. Volunteers are asked to bring luncheon meat and cheese slices if at all possible. There's room for 25 volunteers only. Register at the social hall.

KINDRED SPIRITS is a singles group based at the CATHEDRAL OF CHRIST THE KING but SERVING ALL SINGLES, 50 plus, single, divorced, or widowed, in the Archdiocese of Atlanta. Our mission is to foster a Christ-centered community through social activities, spiritual enrichment, and outreach service programs. Our next monthly gathering is on Sunday, July 8 at 6:30 pm (meet at 5:15 pm for 5:30 Mass) in Conference Room 1. We invite you to be part of our Kindred Spirits family for a fun filled and active evening with a summer picnic theme. We guarantee summer fun (think Beach Boys!) and picnic goodies minus the outdoor critters (think ants & bees!). If you have a special picnic side dish you would like to share, be sure to bring it along – we love to share! Visit www/kindredspiritsatlanta.org, e-mail us at info@kindredspiritsatlanta.org or call Colin Campbell at (678) 468-7582 or Susan Brossoie (678) 327- 7112 for more info.

Food in Church: please do not bring food into Church, even to pacify restless children. Feeding children in Church is only inculcating a habit which must be broken later. Further, food invariably is dropped on the floor (in not insignificant quantities of recent): this will only be an attraction for cockroaches and other pests.

Pope Benedict XVI's Prayer Intentions

Every month Pope Benedict XVI announces his monthly prayer intentions, and requests that we include the intentions in our personal prayers.

General – Work Security: That everyone may have work in safe and secure conditions.

Missionary – Christian Volunteers: That Christian volunteers in mission territories may witness to the love of Christ.

Registration forms for the Angelic Warfare Confraternity are at the back of church. Please send them directly to the confraternity in Washington, DC.

The de Montfort Consecration to Jesus through Mary will take place after the 11:30 Mass today as a group, however, it can be done privately at any time. After reciting the consecration please sign it and keep it as a reminder that it should be done next year on the same day. Having completed the preparation we should go to Confession and Holy Communion with the intention of giving ourselves to Jesus Christ in the quality of slaves of love by the hands of Mary. It would be good also on this day to pay some tribute to Jesus Christ and our Blessed Lady, either as a penance for past unfaithfulness to the vows of Baptism, or as a testimony of dependence on the dominion of Jesus and Mary.

Wed July 4th: The 9:00am Mass (note the change of time from the usual) will be the votive Mass Ad Defensionem Ecclesiae (For the defense of the Church against her enemies). Please make an effort to come and pray for the Church's welfare. This Mass will conclude the two-weeks of prayer called for by the USCCB. There will be a light breakfast afterwards for those who don't have to rush off to secular activities.

Parish Registration Forms are available on the entry shelf. If you regularly practice your faith here, you should consider registering. Should you currently be registered at another archdiocesan parish, your membership will be transferred here upon our receipt of your completed registration form.
