Along the way, we stop in Anzio, near the site of the great World War II battle, where the breathtaking Sicily/Rome American Cemetery is located. This impacting cemetery expresses America's remembrance of those who gave the ultimate sacrifice in the Anzio and Sicily operations of WWII. Prayers will be offered for those American fallen warriors as well as those who are defending our country around the world. Continue on to Nettuno the place where Santa Maria Goretti was "born into Heaven". Stop at the Sanctuary of the Madonna delle Gracie in Nettuno to learn about St. Maria Goretti. Pray by her tomb and see the exhibit about her life (Mass* to be celebrated here). Continue south through Naples to Sorrento where after check-in you'll have dinner with your fellow pilgrims. Leisure time after dinner. (D)

Day 3: Saturday, November 5th: Pompeii and Sorrento. Visit the beautiful Cathedral of Our Lady of Pompeii for Mass* and learn about a layman, Blessed Bartolo Longo, whose extraordinary conversion give great fruit for the Lord and his Blessed Mother! Then travel to the past to witness a place that was once filled with the prosperity of a strong empire but also filled with sin and decadence. Explore the ruins of Pompeii with a local expert guide who will lead us from street to street of this old city with opportunities to peek into ruined old houses and mansions, some still showing their mosaic work and architecture. Learn all about this ancient city and about its demise. Pompeii is a stark reminder that when man revels against God, nature revels against man. Depart the greater Naples area towards the Shrine of Santa Filomena (St. Philomena) to learn about this powerful intercessor. Pray before her remains and attend Mass* here. Afterwards, relax and enjoy one of the most picturesque rides in all of Italy, a drive of Sorrento with its famous curves and truly spectacular sights where the awesome hills (some filled with picturesque cliff homes) meet the beautiful blue sea. Make sure to take pictures and build wonderful memories. Enjoy an evening at leisure in Sorrento. Dinner on your own tonight, your second night in the area. (B)

After the tour, experience a special edition of the beautiful musical about St. Clare, "Chiara de Dio" (Clare of God). Remainder of the day at leisure. (B)

Day 6: Tuesday, November 8th: Siena. Today we travel to the fertile and picturesque Tuscan countryside and arrive in Siena, the land of St. Catherine and St. Bernardino. Siena is a superbly preserved medieval town known for its famous Saints as well as the legendary 'Palio', a grand festival celebrated twice a year with a 'no rules' horse race. Our walking tour takes us through the mini neighborhoods of Siena and includes the beautifully detailed facade of the Cathedral of Siena, the Church of St. Dominic (where the relic of the head of St. Catherine can be found), magnificent Palio Square and other important places. After the tour we will proceed to the Basilica di San Francesco (part of the Franciscan Friary in Siena), where Holy Mass is celebrated. Afterwards, witness the ongoing Eucharistic Miracle of Siena! Continue to Rome where we will check-in and enjoy Dinner with our fellow pilgrims. (B, D)

Depending on church hours, visit St. Augustine (housing the remains of St. Monica), Santa Maria Sopra Minerva (housing the remains of St. Catherine of Siena), St. Ignatius Church, housing the remains of St. Robert Bellarmine and St. Aloysius. Mass will be celebrated at one of these churches Evening at leisure. (B)

Day 8: Thursday, November 10th: Vatican Museum, Sistine Chapel and St Peter's Basilica, plus Imperial Rome. Start the day with Mass in St. Peter's Basilica, where the remains of the first Pope lay, surrounded by the tombs of many Popes. Afterwards, tour the impressive Museo Vaticano (Vatican Museum) with a fascinating collection of historical artifacts and precious objects of art, including the magnificent Cappella Sistina (Sistine Chapel) with the famous Michelangelo frescoes featuring the Last Judgment. Then tour the largest Church in the world, the Basilica di San Pietro (St. Peter's Basilica). There will be a chance to pay respects to the most recently canonized Popes St. John XXIII and St. John Paul II at their tombs. After the tours, join your group for a delicious lunch near St. Peter's.

Day 8: (Continued) Thursday, November 10th: Imperial Rome. This afternoon, travel to the past to witness the splendor of Imperial Rome! The tour includes a visit inside the famous Flavian Amphitheater (Coliseum) built in 72 AD, flanked on one side by the Arch of Constantine that commemorates his victory just outside of Rome. An event Constantine attributed to a Heavenly vision which prophesied his victory if he would have his army fight under a Christian symbol as their standard on all their shields and banners. The Coliseum is surrounded by the massive Roman Forum. It is divided into several sectors constructed by each different emperor. Then from the coach, enjoy a panoramic sightseeing tour including the first "shopping mall", the massive Circus Maximus, the Vittorio Emanuel II monument ("wedding cake building" - housing the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier), Piazza Venezia with the old Venice embassy (used by Mussolini for his famous speeches), the Capitoline Hill, Caracala Baths and more! Leisure evening in Rome. (B, L)

Day 9: Friday, November 11th: Christian Rome. Embark on an unforgettable excursion of the treasures of our faith. First, travel south down the 'Via Apia' (Apian Way) for a powerful journey experiencing how our early brothers and sisters survived and persevered in preserving our Lord's Church. Tour through an amazing complex of underground tunnels with an unending number of crypts, mausoleum tombs and chapels that fill every passageway that comprise the Catacombs of St. Callistus. One of the highlights of this visit will be the place where the body of St. Cecilia was found. A very realistic statue that marks this place portrays the way her body laid, giving a final and resounding testimony to the Blessed Trinity at the time of her death. Then visit the Basilica of St. Paul Outside the Walls, one of the 4 Patriarchal Basilicas of the Church. Although mostly rebuilt in the 19th century, this Basilica conserves the shape of the original St. Peter's Basilica. In addition to having portraits of every Pope, St. Paul Outside the Walls is most famous for housing the remains of St. Paul. After this visit, travel to St. Mary Major (another one of the 4 Patriarchal Basilicas) where you can see relics of the Manger from Bethlehem. Commissioned in the year 360AD approximately, Santa Maria is the first Basilica to be dedicated to the Virgin Mary (Our Lady of the Snows). The famous icon of Mary, Health of the Roman People, believed to be painted by St. Luke, can be found in the beautiful Cappella Paolina built by Paul V. Then visit San Giovanni Laterano (St. John Lateran), the Cathedral of Rome (and another one of the Church's four major Basilicas) originally dedicated to Christ Our Savior, and later to St. John the Baptist and to St. John the Evangelist. Adjoining is the Lateran Palace which was the official residence of the Popes before the Avignon captivity. Afterwards, visit the 'Scala Sancta' (Holy Stairs) where you may climb the same steps Our Lord climbed on the way to see Pontius Pilate. The climb may only be done on your knees. Approximately on every 5 steps, a small circled glass window allows the pilgrim to see the real marble steps below the wooden protective cover. It has been said that at one point pilgrims could still see the marble with drops of the blood of Christ through these small windows. End our day at 'Santa Croce in Gerusalemme' (Holy Cross of Jerusalem), where incredible relics can be found (fragments of the Holy Cross, one Nail, part of the inscription INRI, two thorns from the Crown of Thorns, fragments of the pillar of the scourging and of the rock of the Holy Sepulcher). We owe these beautiful relics, including the Holy Stairs, to St. Helena, the mother of Rome's first Christian Emperor, Constantine. Mass requested at the catacombs. Tonight, enjoy a Festive Farewell Dinner with your new pilgrim family reminiscing on all that you have experienced on this pilgrimage. (B, D)

Day 10: Saturday, November 12th: Arrivederci Roma! Transfer to the airport this morning for our flight to the U.S.A. As our airplane takes off, we take one last look at the beautiful land that now holds a special place in our hearts, and say: Arrivederci Italia! Welcome Home! Upon arrival in the USA, you will be processed through US Immigrations and Customs US Homeland Security).
