

Your funeral wishes

Taking care of your arrangements

Perfect Choice
Funeral Plans

Planning for your latter years is never easy, but it can be a comfort to know that you've taken care of your arrangements, including your funeral.

Many people never talk to their families about what kind of funeral they would prefer, which can prove troubling for loved ones when the time comes.

At Perfect Choice Funeral Plans, we encourage people to discuss their funeral with their families and make their wishes known. This could be as simple as setting out whether you'd prefer to be buried or cremated, or it could be a detailed funeral plan including music choices and the location at which you'd like your ashes scattered. This funeral wishes form allows you to record your funeral preferences.
