

RED BIRD MISSION TRIP 2016

May 1 – 7, 2016

Red Bird Mission is a Christ-centered ministry of The United Methodist Church to the people of the Appalachian region of Eastern Kentucky. Its ministry is broad, including education, medical care, economic development, and housing, as well as ministries of advocacy and justice on behalf of the poor in the region.

Team Leader: George Mingledorff
*Cost: $275 (financial assistance is available)
Registration Deadline: March 20, 2016

The exact nature of our projects will depend upon the number of people in the group, as well as the skills of the group members. However, the opportunities are quite varied and include home repairs, painting, maintenance, cleaning, administrative work, buildings and grounds upkeep, and working in the Mission's Craft and Thrift Stores.

This mission trip is open to all regardless of your skill level. Project work will be found for all who are interested. For more information contact the team leaders. To join the team, complete the registration slip in this brochure and turn it in along with your $100 deposit to either George Mingledorff or the church office.

(*Extra $50 per person for gluten-free meal plan)
