2. A completed Form 5316.
3. A copy of the trust's latest determination letter.
4. The trust instrument and related documents.

Specific Instructions

Line 1a and 1b. Enter the name and address of the trust sponsor/employer.

Address should include the suite, room, or other unit number after the street address. If the post office does not deliver mail to the street address and the plan has a P.O. box, show the box number instead of the street address. The address should be the address of the sponsor/employer.

Line 1g. Enter the 9-digit trust employer identification number (EIN) assigned to the trust sponsor.

The trust sponsor/employer must have an EIN. To apply for an EIN:

- Mail or fax Form SS-4, Application for Employer Identification Number, obtained by calling 1-800-TAX-FORM (1-800-829-3676).
- Call 1-800-829-4933 to receive your EIN by telephone.
- Select the Online EIN Application link at IRS.gov. The EIN is issued immediately once the application information is validated.

Note. This EIN must be used in all subsequent filings of the trust determination letter requests.

Line 2a. Complete this line, or check the box and attach a power of attorney or other written designation. The contact person will receive copies of all correspondence as authorized. See instructions for Form 2848 or Form 8821.

Line 3a. Due to space restrictions this field is limited to 70 characters, including spaces. Please complete this item with how the trust name should read on the trust determination letter to the extent permitted. Due to this restriction, please keep in mind that "Employees" and "Trust" are not needed and will be left off if space does not permit.

Line 3b. Enter the date the trust agreement was executed.

Line 4. Each group trust retiree benefit plan must adopt the group trust as part of the plan. A group trust retiree benefit plan is defined as a pension, profit-sharing, and stock bonus trust or custodial account qualifying under section 401(a) that is exempt under section 501(a); an individual retirement account that is exempt under section 408(e); an eligible governmental plan trust or custodial account under section 457(b) that is exempt under section 457(g); a custodial account under section 403(b)(7); a retirement income account under section 403(b)(9); and a section 401(a)(24) governmental plan.

Line 5. The group trust instrument must expressly limit participation in the group trust to group trust retiree benefit plans. The group trust instrument may also limit participation in the group trust to certain types of group trust retiree benefit plans. For example, the group trust instrument may limit participation in the group trust to pension, profit-sharing, and stock bonus trusts qualifying under section 401(a) that are exempt under section 501(a), and individual retirement accounts exempt under section 408(e). See Rev. Rul. 2011-1 for information on the assets of commingled trust funds.

Line 6. The group trust instrument must expressly prohibit any part of its corpus or income that equitably belongs to any adopting group trust retiree benefit plan from being used for, or diverted to, any purpose other than for the exclusive benefit of the participants and the beneficiaries of the group trust retiree benefit plan. Plan assets are treated as used for, or diverted to, a purpose other than for the exclusive benefit of the plan participants or beneficiaries if the assets of one group trust retiree benefit plan are used to provide benefits under another group trust retiree benefit plan even if the plan participant or beneficiary receiving the benefits is a participant or beneficiary under both plans.

Line 7. A group trust retiree benefit plan that is a governmental plan for purposes of section 401(a)(24) is treated as meeting the requirement to be tax exempt if it is not subject to federal income taxation.

Line 8. Each group trust retiree benefit plan which adopts the group trust must expressly provide in its governing document that it is impossible for any part of the corpus or income of the group trust retiree benefit plan to be used for, or diverted to, purposes other than for the exclusive benefit of the plan participants and their beneficiaries. For more information see Rev. Rul. 2011-1.

Line 9. The group trust instrument must expressly limit the assets that may be held by the group trust to assets that are contributed by, or transferred from, a group trust retiree benefit plan to the group trust (and the earnings on the assets), and the group trust instrument must expressly provide for the separate accounts (and appropriate records) to reflect the interest which each adopting group trust retiree benefit plan has in the group trust. This includes separate accounting for contributions to the group trust from the adopting plan, disbursements made from the adopting plan's account in the group trust, and investment experience of the group trust allocable to that account. A transaction or accounting method which has the effect of directly or indirectly transferring value from the account of one adopting plan into the account of another adopting plan violates this separate accounting requirement. However, a transaction that merely exchanges investments at fair market value between the accounts of one adopting plan to another account of that adopting plan does not violate this separate accounting requirement.
