4 What do you want to do with your money?

For a Spousal alternate payee, you may select option A, B or C.

If payment is to be made to a spousal alternate payee Federal law requires that 20% of the taxable amount of an eligible rollover distribution be withheld, unless payment is directly rolled over to an eligible retirement plan. The amount withheld may not represent your entire tax bill. The above mandatory tax withholding requirements do not apply if the eligible rollover distribution is being rolled over to a Roth IRA. The rollover will be reported to the IRS and you are responsible for the payment of the income tax(es) that apply in connection with the rollover.

For a Non-spousal alternate payee, you may only select option C.

Federal Tax will not be withheld from the withdrawal. The participant is liable for payment of Federal income tax on the taxable portion of the withdrawal. The distribution may also be subject to tax penalties under the estimated tax payment rules if payments of estimated tax and withholding, if any, are not adequate.

Contact your tax advisor or Plan Administrator if you have any questions.

To split your withdrawal into multiple options, check here ☐ and complete a separate form for each option.

9 Authorized Plan Representative Signature

If the alternate payee/participant fails to sign Section 6 - Alternate Payee/Participant Signature (page 3 of this form), the Authorized Plan Representative below certifies, under penalties of perjury, that based on the plan sponsor's record, (i) the number shown on this form is the correct taxpayer identification number (Social Security Number) of the alternate payee and that the alternate payee is a U.S. person (including a U.S. resident alien) unless indicated otherwise in Section 4 C.

I certify that all the above information is complete and correct, that the required alternate payee elections and consent have been properly obtained, and that the funds being withdrawn are not for the purpose of prohibited transactions as defined in IRC Sec. 4975. I also certify that all necessary and applicable information required to be furnished to the Alternate Payee and an explanation of the direct rollover option and related tax rules required by IRC Sec. 402 have been provided. I also certify that, if applicable, the Alternate Payee has waived the 30-day waiting period.

I hereby direct John Hancock Retirement Plan Services to pay to the Third Party Administrator currently on record the above referenced fee (if applicable). I understand that this fee will be deducted from the participant's account balance at the time of the distribution using standard withdrawal protocol, and will be held in the general business account of John Hancock Retirement Plan Services until paid to the Third Party Administrator. I hereby represent that this fee is in accordance with the fee schedule that has been approved by the plan's trustee or named fiduciary as reasonable and authorized under the terms of the plan.

On behalf of the Plan sponsor, the Plan and its related trust, and the Plan Trustee or named Fiduciary, I further agree to indemnify and hold harmless John Hancock Retirement Plan Services, its employees, agents, directors, and officers from any liability, penalties, and taxes that may be incurred as a result of the requested distribution giving rise to one or more prohibited transactions or for implementing requests (including, if applicable, a direct rollover request) based solely on the instructions provided on this form, or if any of the certifications provided on this form are incorrect.
