COACHING CONTRACT

Coaches Creed

Pamper me and I will not respect you
Manipulate me and I will resist you.
Intimidate me and I will reject you.
Humiliate me and I will despise you.

Prepare for me and I will trust you.
Respect me and I will respond to you.
Guide me and I will follow you.
Be an example for me and I will be like you.

The examples set by BVSC soccer coaches are among the most influential our children will encounter in their young lives. Recognizing the critical role that coaches play, it is imperative that we serve as the proper role models for our players.

WYSA Regulations state:

1. Visiting teams and spectators are honored guests.
2. No advantages except those of superior skill should be taught.
3. Officials and opponents should be treated and regarded as honest in intention.
4. Winning is desirable, but winning at any cost defeats the purpose of the game.
5. Losing can be a triumph when the team has given its best.
6. The ideal is the greatest good to the greatest number.

Therefore, as a BVSC coach I will:

1. Support unconditionally the BVSC Technical Plan. Long term player development, guided discovery and small-sided games are the building blocks of our teams.
2. Abide by the rules, policies, and procedures of the team and the club.
3. Plan and supervise practice sessions that are consistent with the club's technical plan, instructive and fun.
4. Motivate and teach through positive reinforcement.
5. Strive to become a better coach.
6. Develop my players to the best of their abilities and put my players needs before my own ambitions.
7. Conduct myself as a responsible adult when dealing with the players, parents, referees and other coaches.
8. Notify the club technical director of incidents that may compromise the integrity of the team or club.
9. Strive to attract the best caliber of athletes to BVSC.

16. When traveling with the team: remain aware of players' whereabouts and behavior. Set schedules and inform players of all activities.
17. Provide genuine cooperation to other coaches within the club.
