Dear Sir/Madam,

It has come to my notice through an advertisement on the internet that our firm is looking for a suitable candidate for the post of Senior Content Editor. I would like to put forth my interest in this position and am forwarding my application for the same.

I have a degree in Arts with an honorary degree in Journalism. I have been working as Assistant Content Editor for the last 2 years. During my term here, I have been involved in the development and management of content for all our major projects. I have even received an award for successful completion of the Ferns. Inc website content.

I believe that my contribution to all these projects has had a significant role in their completion. I feel that I am now ready to take a role in the company that has a lot more responsibilities. I do believe that I have the skill and the knowledge to contribute significantly and ensure more benefits to our organization.

I hope you consider me for the requested post.

Yours Sincerely,
