Introduction

It is always a nice gesture to appreciate someone for their efforts in coming up to your expectations. By doing so, we are representing our own self in front of others. Whether it is a professional world or a community, an appreciation letter is always encouraging for the reader. He will always stand by you in future also. Though writing an appreciation letter will not take much of your time, but definitely it will make the other person feel special and appreciated.

Pastor Appreciation Letter Tips

Following points should be considered for writing an effective pastor appreciation letter:

- As Pastor is considered to one of the most respected person in the community, it is vital to appreciate his efforts in a humble and sincere manner.
- Tone of the letter should be polite.
- It is worth mentioning in the letter that his presence means a lot to you.
- Wordings of the letter should be such that the reader should feel that he is genuinely respected for his effort.

Dear Mr. Hughes,

Greetings. The objective of writing this letter is to convey my sincerest thanks to you and appreciating your efforts that you took time to attend our convention meet on 30th September. It was a pleasure to have you with us. Without your presence, this meet would not be so meaningful. Your welcoming smile has impressed lot of people present there in the meet.

I know that the distance between the two churches is quite long, but still you managed to take time out from your busy schedule and attended the convention on Spiritual Bliss. I once again would like to thank you on behalf of everyone associated with me and Montana Church for your auspicious presence.

Thanking you,

Yours truly,

Michael Thomas
