The U.S. Internal Revenue Service (IRS) requires donors to value their items. Donation forms received by the ECLC with no value will be issued blank receipts.

To be deductible, clothing and household items donated to charity after Aug. 17, 2006, must be in good used condition or better. However, a taxpayer may claim a deduction of more than $500 for any single item, regardless of its condition, if the taxpayer includes a qualified appraisal of the item with the return. Household items include furniture, furnishings, electronics, appliances, and linens.

Please list items donated and their value:
