

Canadian Holistic
Nutrition
Conference 2014
May 23 & 24 • Toronto ON

Registration Form

The Canadian School of Natural Nutrition Alumni Association (CSNNAA) is excited to announce its 7th annual Canadian Holistic Nutrition Conference to be held in Toronto, Ontario at the Ontario Science Centre, May 23rd & 24th, 2014. The theme for the Conference is “Demystifying Cancer: A Holistic Approach”.

This two-day event, running successfully for the past six years, is the most comprehensive and up-to-date educational conference of its kind in Canada!

Expected to attract 250 to 300 attendees, this is the place to network and learn from those ready to share their knowledge, passion and dedication to holistic nutrition!

We are very excited about the line-up of speakers and workshops being provided. This event will bring you the latest research, information and protocols on cancer prevention and compassionate ways to care for those with cancer.

Make the most of your conference experience:

- Meet and ask questions directly to recognized experts and practitioners in the field.
- Take away the latest practical advice and applications to immediately enhance your practice or studies.
- Network with your mentors and peers.
- See the latest products and services that support holistic health and lifestyles.
- Earn Continuing Education Credits (CEUs).

We are also hosting a trade show of exhibitors, featuring specialty food, supplement companies and healthy lifestyle products we feel attendees would like to know more about. Enjoy delicious organic meals on both days, included in your registration. We hope you will join us!
