

Field of Dreams

2011 League Biennial Seminar
Monterey, California
October 13-15, 2011

Location:

Monterey - situated on the coast of central California and a short 2-hour drive to the facilities of Antique Aero in Paso Robles, CA.

Activities:

Thursday Evening, Oct. 13

Get together mixer to indulge in some hangar flying with old acquaintances and new friends.

Friday, Oct. 14

A full day of expert presentations by top WW1 Aviation historians and enthusiasts. Friday evening we'll have our customary sit-down banquet with an after-dinner speaker.

Saturday, Oct 15

Our field trip will be to the facilities of Antique Aero in Paso Robles, CA. On display there will be aircraft from the collection of Javier Arango and will include, weather permitting, a flight demonstration by some of those aircraft.

Here is a sampling of some of the presentations you will be enjoying:

Walter Pieters - The Belgian Air Service in the First World War

Ron King/Darroch Greer - "The Millionaires Unit. America's pioneer pilots of the first World War."

Professor Kearby Lyde- WWI Aviators in Early Hollywood.

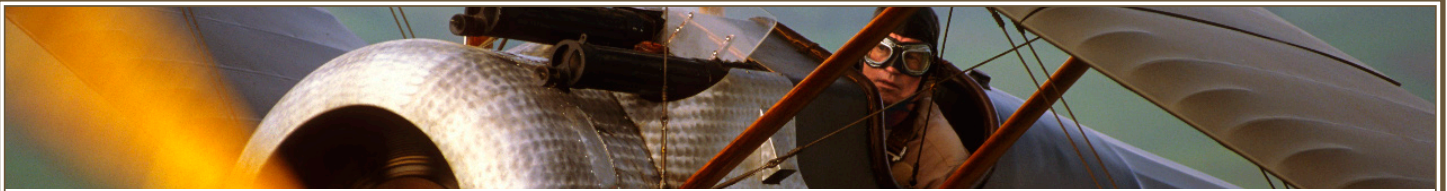

Hotel and Seminar Site: The historic Casa Munras hotel, located in the picturesque coastal town of Monterey – right in the heart of Old-Town. 1.25 hours from the San Jose airport and 2 hours from San Francisco International.

Registration fee - $195 covers all of the seminar presentations, transportation to and from Paso Robles, breakfast and lunch Friday and Saturday, along with Friday evening's banquet. Its too good of a deal to pass up!

Lodging - Lodging is not included in the Seminar registration fee, but we have arranged for a special low Seminar rate for all attendees who stay at the Casa Munras Hotel - $135 per night for a single or double accommodation.

To reserve your room call 831-375-2411 and mention our group "The League of WW1 Aviation Historians".
