Notes for Annie Rose SIMS:

My mother Rose also had another daughter, Mary Lynn Cameron (my half-sister). She was born with Cerabal Palsy. Mary Lynn died 4 months after her 13th birthday, after she was taken from the only home she knew. Mother is sure she died of a broken heart. I remember a funny line made by my mother while trying to move into our home in Hokes Bluff, AL that her sister, Linda still occupied and the police were called when Linda would not give up the home. Mother was very upset and used the word damn several time to the officier when he wouldn't allow her to move into the home. It went like this after telling the officer she was not cussing: "I went the the dam to get some dam water, but the dam man would not give me no dam water".

Notes for MaKenna Marianna Bernice WILLIAMS:

BIRTH: Holly lived alone in a one bedroom apartment. She was new and had not met many neighbors. She began to go in labor the morning of Oct 1, 2000 and could not reach her boyfriend Ken. She found a neighbor to take her to the hospital and was told she was not dilated enough and sent her home. Holly's labor pains grew closer and call me (her mother). I told her to call for an ambulance. Before they got there she had already begun to give birth. The paramedics had to bust the front door that she had locked to get to her upstairs bedroom. She gave birth to MaKenna on her bedroom floor.

95. Family Information Contributions, Information as told to me by my mother Annie Rose, Back in the days of their marriage, to get a divorce there were only to acceptable reasons, 1. abuse or 2. Adultry. This is the story told to me by my mother, Rose. Floyd and Rose were having problems and mother wanted a divorce and there was no way she was backing out so she told the courts that she was being abused. The divorce was granted. The second time, Dad was in Korea. Mother was having a very hard time making ends meet with the money she had to live on and had a breakdown. Mother's half sister, Linda threatened to have us kids taken from her by the courts. She was very angry and went after Linda and threatened to kill her if her kids were taken from her. Mother was arrested and Dad sent back to the U.S. on an emergency leave. Dad was going to make her bail, but stubborn mother said she would allow him to do this if he would get her a divorce. Dad didn't want to say she was abusive as it would hurt his Army career. So mother suggested he tell them she committed adultery and her sister, Linda would back their story. The divorce was final for the second time. Dad went back to Korea to finish his year there. When he returned he was stationed to California and tried to win back mother again, but she didn't want to go back.

107. Dorothy M Blunk Perales, Personal Knowledge, I had recently moved to California to live with my mother, Rose when Linda died. I could never recall ever seeing someone dead before her. When I appeared at her in her coffin in the visiting room it gave me a scare. After watching her for a few minutes, she appeared to be breathing. Linda had always had a weight problem. She was recovering from spinal surgery and died due to complications. She left behind her son, David Sauer whom came to live with my father. In honor of his mother he changed his last name to Blunk. He never stayed in contact with his father.
