Student Coordinator/Counselor
Counseling Center/ Counseling Secretary

Dear Counselor(s),

The Colorado Prince Hall Foundation, Inc., takes pleasure in awarding scholarships to deserving graduating high school seniors. This Raymond H. Black scholarship is for students who plan on pursuing a degree in teacher education. Scholarships are awarded after the selected student has enrolled in the college of their choice.

We will direct our attention towards minority students to include, Native Americans, African Americans, Hispanic and Asian Americans. Since education is one of the aims of our foundation, applicants must have at least a 2.9 cumulative grade point average on a 4.0 scale to receive consideration.

The enclosed application forms are intended for your use in recommending graduating seniors to us for consideration. We will have the selection process completed by the end of April each year. The deadline for the application is April 1, 2014. We greatly appreciate your expeditious handling of the application process. Please feel free to make additional copies of the attached scholarship application.

Please mail completed applications to:

Mr. Loran Smith
