About the speaker:

Rob Finch is a Detective in the Greensboro Police Department's Criminal Intelligence Unit, where he has been assigned since 2008.

His daily responsibilities involve monitoring, documenting and prosecuting subversive criminal groups and organizations that include sovereign citizens/anti-government extremists, outlaw motorcycle gangs, anarchists, separatists and animal/earth extremists.

Detective Finch has worked numerous criminal cases on a state and federal level that have resulted in successful prosecutions.

He is well versed on covert and overt surveillance techniques used during intelligence operations involving these subversive groups and has worked several large regional and national events in multiple jurisdictions
