

Application form

Name

.....

Date of birth

.....

Are you male female?

Address and postcode

.....

.....

Telephone number

.....

E-mail

.....

Parent's email (if different to the above)

.....

Would you prefer to be contacted mainly by e-mail?

Please circle: YES NO

Please tell us about your style of composition by writing 1, 2 & 3 next to the three statements below that best describe the music that you compose:

Instrumental music

Music for theatre

Vocal music

Music that uses world instruments / sounds

Electronic or electro-acoustic music

Music that uses samples

My music is conventionally notated

Jazz music

Using a computer/studio to create music

I create my music through improvisation

My music uses text/words

Other (please describe)

.....

Information about your submitted composition

Please write up to 250 words (on a separate sheet) telling us about your submitted composition, for example your starting points and how you developed it, along the lines of a coursework log. There is an example of a coursework log on our website, although you don't have to use this format.

Information about yourself

Please write up to 250 words (on a separate sheet) saying why you want to take part in the Summer School, what experience you have of composing music, including at school, with a composition teacher or independently, and any musical activities in which you're involved.

Please list any instruments played and to what standard.

.....

.....

If you wish to apply for a grant, please tick here

We will then send you an application form which will ask for information about your financial situation.

Declaration

This form must be signed by a parent or guardian. If you are applying electronically, then we will ask for parental consent including an original signature if you are offered a place on the Summer School.

Name of parent or guardian

.....

Relationship to applicant

.....

Address (if different from above)

.....

.....

Telephone number (if different from above)

.....

Signature and Date

.....

.....

Data Protection Act

Sound and Music is registered under the Data Protection Act. This means that we can ask you for certain personal details but must be able to explain why we have done so. In the case of Sound and Music Summer School, we have only asked you for details about yourself that will assist us in processing your application and keeping in contact with you. The Data Protection Act also means that you can ask us in writing to let you know what details we hold about you and we must let you have this information within a reasonable time. We are allowed to charge you an administration fee for doing this.