- Private Clients

- Superannuation.

Brief support enquiries

Our service offers short-answer technical support to practitioners seeking clarification or guidance on matters that can be dealt with in a brief manner (5 to 10 minutes), at no charge. The number of allowable member enquiries is not capped and we endeavour to respond to members' technical queries within 24 hours.

Any employee of a member firm may use the service, simply confirming their own name, their firm's name and membership of BDO's PPN.

Comprehensive consultations

If an issue is complex, demanding a more detailed response other than by telephone discussion, the advice will be provided on the basis of an agreed fee, negotiated with a member firm or its clients before proceeding.

Professional service rates may vary depending on the nature of the assignment, the consultation or research time required and which BDO specialist is providing the advice.

Can members email an enquiry?

Members are able to email enquiries, however, email replies by their nature may require a longer timeframe and may not conform to being a brief enquiry and consultation fees may apply.

When issuing an email enquiry, members should advise their preferred method of reply.
