

GREY GARDENS
CALL FOR ENTRIES

The Harrison Center for the Arts is seeking submissions for our annual color-themed holiday show. This year's color is grey as in Grey Gardens, the 1975 documentary about the mother and daughter (Bouvier) Beales, relatives of Jacqueline Bouvier Kennedy. (Click on the image above for one of our favorite scenes.) Submissions should include the color grey and may or may not give a nod to the film. Reply to this email with any questions. Here are the details:

- We are accepting all media.
 - If you are submitting video, you will need to supply your own video equipment.
 - Pieces that are not easily hung should be installed by the artist.
 - Artwork must be presented in a professional manner and delivered ready to hang. If an accepted entry is delivered in a format that is not ready to hang or after 7pm on December 2nd, it will not be exhibited.
 - Harrison Center retains the right to decline artwork based on appropriateness for family audiences and will have final approval of the content of work hung.
 - Submit up to 3 images (preferably jpegs by email) by 5pm on 11/15/2013.
 - Submitted images should be of a finished product (not a concept).
 - Artists who are selected to participate in the show will be notified by 11/22/2013.
 - Harrison Center takes a 30% commission on sales.
 - If your work is chosen for the show, it should be delivered to the Harrison Center on Monday, December 2 between 8:30am and 7:00pm.
- Send all submissions to:

pam@harrisoncenter.org (put "Grey Gardens" in the subject line)
